6. Superintendent and Staff Updates

a. Presentation by Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction: Curriculum Shared Drive

Jessica Gomez-Bedosky shared a district-level curriculum overview with information on each course offered at each school. This resource is available to students and families via the GUMSS website in both English and Spanish. Additionally, Jessica, with the support of administrators and educators, has developed an internal organization system that stores and maintains the curriculum documents of every subject at each grade level so that new and existing educators have access to reference guides, assessments, timelines, standards of teaching, and other pertinent resources for scholars.

b. Presentation by Superintendent: 2025-2028 District Development Plan and School Development Plans

Sal Menzo shared that the plans have been formatted in accordance with the template of the reformulation plans that will be due to the state by virtue of being magnet schools in the Sheff region. The plans were developed collaboratively as school administrators worked with their staff members, the district welcomed insights from all-staff, and the plans were shared with family members to include their insights.
