

2025-2026 A M Windham Elementary School Curriculum

McGraw-Hill Open Court Reading - A comprehensive, research-based reading, writing, and language arts curriculum that aligns with research on how students learn to read. Open Court Reading focuses on helping students develop the abilities that are critical to reading with understanding. Students learn comprehension and close reading strategies while engaging with a variety of genres and exploring cross-curricular science and social studies connections.

UFLI - An explicit and systematic program that teaches students the foundational skills necessary for proficient reading. The program introduces students to the foundational reading skills necessary for proficient reading. It follows a carefully developed scope and sequence designed to ensure that students systematically acquire each skill needed and learn to apply each skill.

Savvas enVision Mathematics - A complete core curriculum built around the content and skills key to supporting every math learner. The curriculum empowers students to think, solve, and succeed in their learning as they work through real-world problem solving. enVision Mathematics develops math connections and understanding through student investigations on the why, what, and how of mathematics.

McGraw Hill Inspire Science - A comprehensive, research-based science curriculum aligned with the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS). Driven by phenomena, the research-based 5E model prompts students to engage, explore, explain, elaborate, and evaluate the phenomenon. The science learning experience integrates literacy and math that enables students to think critically while leveraging their literacy and math skills.

Studies Weekly Social Studies - A customized, standards-based curriculum with deep learning strategies designed to increase student knowledge and skills in Social Studies. Student-friendly social studies curriculum organized thematically to the strands of civics and government, geography, economics, and history.

Social Studies - Alabama "The History, Geography, Economics, and Civics of an American State" - An educational curriculum specific textbook about Alabama. Comprehensive approach to social studies to explore Alabama's past, its varied landscape, economic activities, and the structure of its government and civic life.

Thriveway Peer Helpers - A multi-tiered support system character education program that provides school-wide comprehensive and positive development curricula and student peer-to-peer support.