Dear Lagway Parents and Guardians,

This week, we're celebrating Above the Influence! This special week is designed to encourage students to make positive choices and resist negative peer pressure. Each day, we'll focus on building confidence, promoting kindness, and celebrating healthy lifestyles. We encourage families to talk together about what it means to stay "above the influence" and how making positive choices today can shape a successful future.

Friday is "Choose Good Character" Day. Find a fun book and character your child likes to read about and dress up! Be sure to send the book to school so students will have it for the parade. Please no inflatable, battery operated costumes or scary Halloween costumes. We will start our parade after our morning announcements around 7:50-ish. You are welcome to park on the cafeteria side and watch from the sidewalk. Our parade will walk out the cafeteria doors and back in through the front doors. If you are unable to attend, we will go live on Facebook around the same time.

Have a great week,

Mrs. Wilder
