

A weekly email update for the Conestoga Valley School District Community

October 23, 2025

CVHS Presents...

Conestoga Valley High School's fall play is "The Curious Savage."

Synopsis: John Patrick's bittersweet comedy, about a wealthy widow whose greedy stepchildren commit her to a sanitarium, celebrates whimsy and skewers notions of "sanity" with warmth, humor and dignity.

The fall play will be held on Nov. 14-16 (Senior Citizen show will be held at 6 p.m. on Nov. 13) at CVHS. Get your tickets by clicking the button below.

Presenting your 2025 Homecoming Court! Hannah Gensel was voted this year's Homecoming Queen.

And the football team capped off the evening with a come-from-behind victory to remain undefeated on the season!

New Elementary Progress Reports: What Do the New Progress Reports Look Like?

This fall, the District revamped its elementary progress reports to now accurately reflect each student's individualized educational journey throughout elementary school!

Check Out SEEDS

Conestoga Valley SEEDS was formed to cultivate a healthy, thriving Conestoga Valley community, focusing on three key areas: Health, Education, and Housing.

Check out some resources and programs they're offering:

- Every first and third Thursday each month, a Resource Coordinator from Union Community Care is available at the SEEDS space (1865 Lincoln Highway East). They can connect you with resources that allow you to manage your healthcare needs and will work as a part of your care team to support your whole health needs. Whether you need insurance connection, resource referral, or health system navigation assistance, they

As we get ready to debut the new progress reports at next month's Family Conferences, this week's focus is on what what the new progress reports look like.

At first glance, the design of the progress reports does not look all that different from previous years, but a deeper dive into the new progress reports highlights some key differences, such as the use of letters rather than percentages, an additional assessment section based on the Profile of a CV Learner, and more.

are available to help. No appointment needed - just walk in!

- Bridge of Services: Come every second Thursday of the month with your questions, paperwork you don't understand, etc., for all things related to your child's IEP, 504, and other Special Education needs. We meet 6:30 - 7:30 at the SEEDS space - 1865 Lincoln Highway East. Register here.

This week, information about the 2025-26 CV Youth Boys Basketball program was added.

In addition, CVCCS is holding a Holiday Food Drive; collect food throughout the month of December and drop off your donations on Jan. 6! Get more information here.

CV CARES is a decades-old program designed to recognize CV employees who have gone above and beyond to make our students, parents and guardians, and community members feel welcome and supported. The recognition could be for a single extraordinary event or an ongoing pattern of positive interaction and support.

If you have had the opportunity to be on the receiving end of this type of engagement, take a moment to fill out the online form to recognize that special educator. Remember, an educator is anyone who has the opportunity to positively impact the life of a child. As such, an educator can be a bus driver, secretary, custodian, teacher, cafeteria worker, school counselor, administrator, or any other support or professional staff associated with CV.
