INK-tober's Word of the Day is: SKELETAL. Just bring a pen and some paper to the library at lunchtime.

In the 6th Grade WiffleBall Tournament of Donuts, the playoffs continued with a very exciting and close playoff game yesterday between the Nakamuraville Nonchalant Labubus and the Krislyn Cooking King Monkeys. The game was locked tight with the King Monkeys barely holding a 1-0 lead going into the 4th inning until both teams conjured up a total of 3 runs a piece to summon a 3-3 tie going into the 5th inning. Then, just when the crowd couldn't handle any more suspense, the King Monkeys got down to business and brought a flurry of 10 runs. With homers hit by Hunter Kaufman, Lucinao Craft, and Drew Torrice the Krislyn Cooking King Monkeys have created a comfortable pad to the potential end of this matchup. Play will continue today between these two juggernauts with 2 outs for the Monkeys and one more at bat for the Labubus. At the conclusion of that game, the Bayer Bears and Littletown Lunchables will immediately take the field to begin their playoff game.

The chess tournament is in the final round! Due to an odd number starting in the tournament, we're down to the last 3 contestants: Jason Chan, Johnny Walker, and Milan Tabrizi. Jason and Milan started play yesterday and will finish during lunch today. Johnny will start play today. Good luck to these accomplished chess finalists!
