New Students Early Applicant for Tuition Assistance 2026-2027

Tuition Assistance application timeline – Early Applicant:

- The Tuition Assistance process for 2026-2027 opens on November 1, 2025, in FACTS.
- Early Applicant: submits a FACTS application and uploads their 2024 Tax Return and Year End Pay Statement(s) – Due Date: January 7, 2026, to receive your tuition assistance award notification with your acceptance email on January 23, 2026.

Tuition Assistance application process:

1. Submit an application in FACTS Grant & Aid at: <https://online.factsmgt.com/signin/3CH78>
2. Upload your Federal Tax Return(s) to FACTS for 2024. Please include Schedules I, A, B, C, D, and E when applicable.
3. Upload your 2025 Year End Pay Statement(s).
4. If you file separate tax returns, tax returns for both parents need to be uploaded to FACTS.
5. Other required documents (where relevant): – All available on the website at: www.uofdjesuit.org under Admissions/Tuition & Affordability.
 - IRS 4506-T form – a completed and signed form is required for all applicants. The completed form should be uploaded to the document section of your FACTS application.
 - Policy for Divorced, Separated or Single Parents/Guardians – It is requested that both parents submit a financial aid application.
 - Policy for Self Employed or Business Owners – if either parent is self-employed, this form needs to be completed. We will also expect that the tax documents pertaining to the business are also uploaded to FACTS, such as, Schedule C, K-1 and 1120S, when applicable.
6. The Financial Aid Committee will review your application for a tuition assistance award once the following are complete:
 - FACTS application is complete and verified.
 - Additional documentation is completed and received, see #5 above.
 - Your student has taken the HSPT or the Academy Entrance Exam.

PLEASE NOTE: Financial Aid Applications are not reviewed until you have completed the online application and submitted all documents. If you have any questions, please contact our Financial Aid Office at:
