NWECHS Application Process & Acceptance Procedure

In-District Applicants:

All students in Canutillo ISD are welcome to apply to Northwest Early College High School. Northwest accepts all in-district students who have the desire, drive, and potential to be successful in our program. If more than 125 student applications are received, students are chosen based on a lottery system.

Out-of-District Applicants:

Northwest has space for 125 students in each cohort. Once all in-district applicants have been accepted and registered, out-of-district applicants are notified. All Applicants Northwest Early College High School is a Canutillo school of choice, students must be able to meet the general demands and rigor of the advanced coursework to be enrolled in the program. Changes in the requirements for the associate degree and high school diploma cannot be made. If a student has not yet passed the TSI Reading exam, the student is placed into a reading intervention course that provides students with tutoring focused specifically on the skills needed to pass the exam. Students who take this course normally pass the exam by the end of their Freshman year at Northwest. Students who are found to face academic struggles work with the administration team to determine the best course of action.
