WSISD EDUCATION FOUNDATION TO AWARD $39,000 IN INNOVATIVE GRANTS

Congrats to Jen Tyler in the Administration Building, who won a $100 gift card as part of the WSISD Education Foundation's Blue Jean Incentive program. Employees who participate in the program are eligible for the monthly drawing.

The WSISD Education Foundation raised nearly $39,000 in its 22nd annual Golf Tournament, and all proceeds will fund Innovative Teaching Grants. The Foundation will accept grant applications now through Dec. 8 for the December grants that will be awarded before the holidays. Applicants must participate in the Blue Jean Incentive Program to be eligible.

- Judges critique applications based on the following criteria: qualification, description, innovation, and justification. Not sure if your grant is eligible, email Desiree Coyle at dcoyle@wsisd.net.
- Grants for field trips, incentives/awards, consumables and books will not be considered. Grant applications for books to be used in innovatively will be accepted.
- Write your applications in layman's terms. Keep it simple and concise, while also proving that your idea would be innovative and beneficial to students.
