FAMILY RESOURCE GUIDE

for Marin County 2025

RESOURCES YOU CAN USE TODAY

DEAR COMMUNITY,

Now more than ever, knowing what resources are available to you and how to access them is crucial. Whether you are seeking affordable housing, access to healthy meals, in need of affordable, high-quality early childhood education, or other critical supports, this guide will help you find the right people across Marin County to help you, your neighbors, friends, and family.

In early 2025, Community Action Marin engaged more than 760 people in conversations about what's needed to live and thrive in Marin. Not surprisingly, housing, food, safety, and opportunity all rose to the top. We learned that safety concerns are increasing, notably the fear of deportation, and we have developed a complementary Immigrant Resource Guide, available online at: camarin.org/immigrant-resource-guide. This will be updated as policies change and as other information becomes available.

Please share these valuable resources and stay connected. Together, we can help people and change lives.

Thank you to the many partner organizations that do the crucial work our community needs. Many have stepped up to support making this guide an accurate reflection of the care and resolve we bring to this moment. We are grateful, and we are stronger together.

In community,

CHANDRA ALEXANDRE
Chief Executive Officer

P.S. Additional copies of this Resource Guide are available at Community Action Marin (7665 Redwood Blvd, Novato, CA) or online at: camarin.org/resource-guide-download.
