

Athletic Hall of Fame

Est. 2023

When Millsap community members speak of the history of the MHS Baseball program, they often are reminded of an outstanding pitcher that came through the program during the 1994-1997 seasons by the name of Kevin Waldrum.

Kevin made his mark as a 4-year starter at the pitcher position. He was chosen as All-State in the 1996 & 1997 seasons as well as being placed on the All-District teams. During his tenure as a MHS Baseball pitcher, Waldrum recorded several records to his baseball pitching collection including #2 in career strikeouts for the State of Texas, #10 in career strikeouts in the Nation with 614, most no-hitters in a career with 8, most no-hitters in a season with 4 and ranked #1 in Texas and #5 in the nation for no-hitters.

As a Jr., Waldrum was ranked 3rd in the State of Texas and 6th in the nation for most strikeouts in a season. His total number of strikeouts for the 1996 season was 263.

In 1997, he ended his illustrious baseball career for the Mighty Bulldogs and found himself among the top ranks for the most strikeouts in a season for a high school pitcher. Kevin ended the season with a strikeout ranking of #2 in Texas and #3 in the Nation with 290 which broke his own previous record of 263. This amazing feat had many people speaking of this young pitcher from Millsap High School. Only David Clyde of Houston Westchester, with 327 in 1973, had more in a single campaign than the young man from Millsap, Texas. In his final game, sporting his maroon and white uniform, Kevin finished with 14 strikeouts.

"He's a fantastic pitcher and player. I hope he gets drafted and has the chance to continue playing on a higher level," said Coach Teran concerning Waldrum at his ended his high school career. Waldrum did receive the opportunity to play at a higher level when he played professionally for three years in the minor leagues with the Chicago Cubs winning the Arizona League Championship during his rookie season. Afterwards, he finished his career when he went to "A" ball in the Northwest League in Eugene, Oregon.

After his baseball career, Kevin went into the car business where he has spent the last 25 years. He and his wife, Crystal have three children: Austin – age 26, Meagan – age 21, and Preston – age 20.

Kevin Waldrum ~ Baseball 1997