THE LEGEND OF FRANK THE GHOSTLY JANITOR

YOU'VE PROBABLY HEARD ALL KINDS OF CONSPIRACY THEORIES – PEOPLE WHO FAKED THEIR OWN DEATHS, BIGFOOT SIGHTINGS IN NATIONAL PARKS, OR THAT ONE TEACHER WHO'S DEFINITELY A SECRET AGENT. BUT NONE OF THOSE COMPARE TO THE MOST POPULAR MYSTERY RIGHT HERE IN GRANT UNION:

THE LEGEND OF FRANK OLIVER, THE GHOST JANITOR.

ACCORDING TO LONG-TIME STAFF (AND MS. WILSON, WHO'S BASICALLY THE PRESIDENT OF THE "FRANK FAN CLUB"), THE STORY GOES WAY BACK. FRANK WAS A HARDWORKING JANITOR WHO LOVED THIS SCHOOL ALMOST AS MUCH AS HE LOVED HIS MOP. HE WAS KNOWN FOR HIS SPOTLESS HALLWAYS, SHINY FLOORS, AND A STRONG DISLIKE FOR GUM STUCK UNDER DESKS. BUT ONE STORMY NIGHT, AFTER AN ESPECIALLY CHAOTIC CAFETERIA FOOD FIGHT (THE MASHED POTATOES WERE APPARENTLY WEAPON-GRADE), TRAGEDY STRUCK. FRANK SLIPPED ON A PUDDING CUP, HIT THE FLOOR, AND... WELL, LEGEND SAYS HE NEVER REALLY LEFT.

DID WE JUST MAKE ALL OF THAT UP? PROBABLY.

APPARENTLY HE LIVED IN MR. JONES' CLASSROOM, WHICH USED TO BE AN APARTMENT WITH A BATHROOM AND ALL.

DUSTIN THE HEAD OF MAINTENANCE SAYS THAT HE HAS HAD MANY EXPERIENCES WITH FRANK. ONE THAT REALLY STUCK WITH HIM WAS WHEN HE WAS IN THE GYM ALONE AND HE SAW THE LOCK MOVING BY ITSELF. HE KNEW IT WAS FRANK.

HAPPY HAUNTING, EVERYONE — AND REMEMBER: FRANK'S ALWAYS ON DUTY.