The PAX Post

I hope that over the past several weeks you have been hearing bits and pieces about the various components of PAX that our staff are working diligently to teach students and reinforce throughout their time in school! It has been most amazing to see how students have adopted PAX – the language of being a PAX Leader, responding quickly to the harmonica for PAX Quiet, and celebrating hard work with Granny's Wacky Prizes.

This week we have shared another way to get students investing in contributing to a PAX community and classroom: Meaningful Roles! So in addition to having a designated Line Leader, Caboose, Teacher's Helper, Class Manager, and other jobs, we are now inviting teachers to add some new positions. These could include the PAX Stix Manager, Wacky Prize Manager/Fun Master, PAX Scout (to look out for PAX Leader behavior), PAX Greeter, PAX Timekeeper, Tootle Note Manager, and PAX Demonstrator.

We hope that through these new, meaningful roles, students will become further invested in PAX and becoming leaders in their classroom community. As the PAXIS Institute says, "I better my world, I better myself."
