Do I Need to Bring Anything or Provide Any Personal Information When I Visit a Food Pantry?

Bring yourself and a durable grocery bag if you have one!

- No documentation or ID is collected when you visit the Emergency Food Network's partner food pantries. All questions and personal information collected is optional and is usually collected for grant reporting purposes. You do not have to prove citizenship or income level.
- Pantries will ask for your name, household size, and other demographic data for grant reporting. This is entirely voluntary. Information is requested but not required to receive food.
