Popeyes and Tropical Smoothie Café as Employee Perks Partners of the Month

Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton
Owners of Popeyes and Tropical Smoothie Café

Orangeburg, S.C.: Orangeburg County School District (OCSD) proudly recognizes Popeyes and Tropical Smoothie Café as the Employee Perks Partners of the Month. This special honor goes to owners Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton, a dedicated husband-and-wife team whose commitment to excellence in business is matched only by their passion for serving the Orangeburg community.

Through the OCSD Employee Perks Program, Popeyes and Tropical Smoothie Café provide meaningful discounts and benefits to district employees, showing appreciation for the hard work and dedication of our teachers, administrators, and support staff. The Fultons' generosity extends beyond business; they are deeply engaged community members who consistently find ways to give back, supporting initiatives that uplift families, strengthen local partnerships, and inspire pride across Orangeburg County.

"Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton embody what it means to be true community partners. Their support of our Employee Perks Program ensures that our staff feel valued, and their ongoing investment in Orangeburg speaks volumes about their commitment to strengthening our community," said Dr. Shawn D. Foster, Superintendent of Orangeburg County School District.

The Employee Perks Program is designed to recognize the invaluable service of OCSD employees by offering exclusive discounts and benefits at local, state, and national businesses. By partnering with generous business owners like the Fultons, OCSD continues to build bridges between schools and the community, reinforcing the shared mission of preparing every student for success, by supporting their person, purpose, and/or platform. Underscoring that mission, district leadership points to how partnerships create lasting support for students, staff, and families.

In addition to the program's benefits, OCSD highlights the Fultons' active involvement, including their participation in the Principal for a Day event, which allows them to connect with students, educators, and administrators while supporting education. They also endorsed Convocation 2025 with meals for our student participants, ensuring that our scholars were celebrated and cared for during this district-wide event.

"It is truly a blessing to serve Orangeburg County School District," said Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton, owners of Popeyes and Tropical Smoothie Café. "We believe that communities grow stronger when businesses and schools work together. By giving back, we hope to inspire others to support education and develop the next generation of Entrepreneurs within Orangeburg County.

The Fultons' emphasize how business partnerships translate into tangible benefits for OCSD classrooms and families, reflecting the very purpose of the Employee Perks Program.

OCSD extends heartfelt thanks to Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton for their outstanding contributions as Perks Partners and celebrates their well-deserved recognition as Partners of the Month.
