 1. On October 3rd, Senior Seneca Valley Football player Tommy Wuycheck was chosen to receive the Jerome Bettis Leadership Award. The award was co-founded in 1995 by Dan Rooney of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Mentoring Sponsorship. Tommy was chosen due to his work in the community and how he supports his teammates on and off the field. Tommy is the second Seneca Valley student to receive this award after Carmen Pietro won the award in 2024.
 2. For the third year in a row, several students from Ryan Gloyer Middle School took part in a tree planting blitz around Cranberry Township on Wednesday, Oct. 22 as a way to create a greener future for their community. Students dispersed from the Cranberry Township Municipal Center and into various neighborhoods to plant over 300 trees.
