ANNOUNCEMENTS

- If you are a junior or senior interested in gaining excellent job skills and opportunities in the visitor industry, then the Alaska Railroad Tour Guide Training Program may be for you. Class is held at King Tech High School from 4-5:30 pm second semester. Applications are due December 4th, 2025. The Alaska Railroad will be here at lunch Thursday, October 30th to provide more information and answer questions.
- UAA Application Day is November 6th from 8:45am to 12:15pm in room 63. This is a great time for seniors to apply to UAA with help from their admissions advisors; they'll walk you through the whole process! You can sign up by filling out the form in Canvas, go see your school counselor to sign up, or simply show up to room 63 and sign in on the day.
- Alaska Army National Guard will be in the cafeteria on Monday the 3rd. The Army Guard has a dual mission—protecting communities at home and supporting the nation when called upon. It might be just right for you! Stop by and find out!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Thank you everyone for participating in our Spook-tacular festivities this week! Today's spirit day is Monster Mash. If you are dressed in your Halloween costume, check in at the photo booth during lunch to get spirit points for your class. We will also have our costume contest set up at the photo booth. If you think your costume, or group costume, has a chance of winning a prize, enter your name and grade at the photo booth when you get your picture. Big prizes await our winners in each category.
- Today is the very last day to participate in the Guess the Candy competition, and to donate to either the class cauldrons with hygiene products, or the class bins in the main office with cash or check. The class with the most donated by the end of today will win the most WACKO points! Thank you for participating in all of our spook-tacular shenanigans this week. From Chugiak's Student Government, Happy Halloween Mustangs! Make good choices.
