LAW & PUBLIC POLICY PROGRAM

What is Law and Public Policy?

Law

Law is a system of rules and regulations established by governments and authorities to maintain order, protect rights, and ensure justice within a society. It provides the framework for resolving disputes, governing behavior, and enforcing societal standards.

Public Policy

Public policy refers to the strategies and actions adopted by governments to address societal issues and promote the public good. It involves creating laws, regulations, and programs to solve problems, improve quality of life, and meet the needs of citizens.
