In honor of _____

NORMAN R. JEMAL

Norman has been a dedicated member of Hillel's Board of Directors for over twenty years. With his passionate and enthusiastic speaking style, Norman has raised significant funds for both our annual scholarship drives and for the growth and expansion of our campus.

Since graduating with the class of 2000, he has advocated for affordable tuition, has championed our fundraising campaigns, and has enhanced our athletic department by coaching numerous teams, working with players and coaches, and broadcasting countless games in a professional and unique way.
