

A Winning Weekend for Bulldog Pride and Tradition

Bolles families and students kick off the weekend at the Bolles Family Tailgate, held on Friday, Oct. 10.

Bulldog pride was high last month as the Bolles community celebrated Homecoming and Alumni Reunion Weekend, kicking off the fall sports with a bang and spending time with friends and family.

Held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11, Friday's festivities included the Bolles Fund Family Tailgate, which welcomed more than 350 guests, and the All-Alumni Tailgate party, both events hosted by the Office of Advancement, before the Bulldogs squared off against Andrew Jackson High School. A pre-kickoff ceremony recognized Palmer Knight and Karen Gray as this year's Sidney W. Register Sr. Memorial Award winners.

Saturday was a whirlwind of fun, featuring three signature alum gatherings: the Bartram Lunch, the Bolles Legacy Lunch, and the All-Alumni Cocktail Party, each held at a different Bolles venue and all celebrating moments of reflection and reconnection for Bolles alums.
