INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To The Board of Education of the
Sullivan County BOCES
Liberty, New York

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the governmental activities, each major fund and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES), New York, as of and for the year ended June 30, 2020, which collectively comprise the BOCES' basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents, and the notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence that we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Unmodified Opinions

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of the governmental activities, each major fund and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Sullivan County BOCES, New York, as of June 30, 2020, and the changes in financial position for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that the management's discussion and analysis and other required supplementary information, on pages 4 through 14 and 53 through 58, be presented to supplement the basic financial statements. Such information, although not a part of the basic financial statements, is required by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board, who considers it to be an essential part of financial reporting for placing the basic financial statements in an appropriate operational, economic, or historical context. We have applied certain limited procedures to the required supplementary information in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which consisted of inquiries of management about the methods of preparing the information and comparing the information for consistency with management's responses to our inquiries, the basic financial statements, and other knowledge we obtained during our audit of the basic financial statements. We do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on the information because the limited procedures do not provide us with sufficient evidence to express an opinion or provide any assurance.

Other Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming opinions on the financial statements that collectively comprise the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. The supplementary information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

The prior year summarized comparative information has been derived from the BOCES' June 30, 2019 financial statements and, in our report dated September 29, 2019, we expressed an unmodified opinion on those financial statements.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated October 7, 2020 on our consideration of the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's internal control over financial reporting and our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Sullivan County BOCES
Management's Discussion and Analysis
For the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 2020

The following is a discussion and analysis of the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) financial performance for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2020. This section is a summary of the BOCES' financial activities based on currently known facts, decisions, or conditions. It is also based on both the government-wide and fund-based financial statements. The results of the current year are discussed in comparison with the prior year, with an emphasis placed on the current year. This section is only an introduction and should be read in conjunction with the BOCES' financial statements, which immediately follow this section.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Overall, Sullivan BOCES had a successful year and our districts will be receiving a surplus/refund. While COVID-19 unexpectedly closed our school buildings and hindered the County's economic rebound, the BOCES maintained its provision of services in a remote capacity for the last four (4) months of the school year. The shift to remote learning was immense for both students and staff. We were fortunate that overall everyone adjusted to the situation and embraced the online learning and work environment. Teachers modified lessons, the operations/maintenance staff maintained our facilities and the central business office staff continued to support its clients by processing payroll, accounts payable and other necessary financial transactions in a remote capacity. New procedures were quickly developed and everyone worked together to ensure deadlines were maintained and each district had what it needed to maintain its operations during the pandemic. The BOCES Shared Food Service Management Coser continued to support participating districts enabling thousands of meals to be provided to children throughout the County while school buildings were shuttered. In addition, a variety of meetings at various administrative levels were coordinated by the BOCES to assist school personnel with keeping up to date on new regulations and executive orders. The BOCES, along with other schools from throughout the state, will be implementing its reopening plan in the upcoming 2020-2021 school year. Similar to other schools re-opening in this new environment we anticipate facing some challenges including but not limited to: transitioning back to a safe learning and working environment, assessing actual enrollment data, supporting the SEL needs of students, addressing staff shortages due to COVID leaves of absences, complying with a variety of other state/federal regulations and executive orders that continue to be issued and developing a budget for the 2021-2022 school year at a time when school aid has been cut and everyone is facing financial constraints. The timing of the pandemic was particularly unfortunate for the County of Sullivan as the region had been showing signs of economic revitalization.

OVERVIEW OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

This annual report consists of three parts: MD&A (this section), the basic financial statements, and required supplementary information. The basic financial statements include two kinds of statements that present different views of the BOCES:

- The first two statements are district-wide financial statements that provide both short-term and long-term information about the BOCES overall financial status.
- The remaining statements are fund financial statements that focus on individual parts of the BOCES, reporting the BOCES operations in more detail than the district-wide statements. The fund financial statements concentrate on the BOCES most significant funds with all other non-major funds listed in total in one column.
- The governmental funds statements tell how basic services such as regular and special education were financed in the short term as well as what remains for future spending.
- Fiduciary funds statements provide information about the financial relationships in which the BOCES acts solely as a trustee or agent for the benefit of others.

The financial statements also include notes that explain some of the information in the statements and provide more detailed data. The statements are followed by a section of required supplementary information that further explains and supports the financial statements with a comparison of the BOCES budget for the year.

Figure A-1 summarizes the major features of the BOCES financial statements, including the portion of the BOCES activities they cover and the types of information they contain. The remainder of this overview section of MD&A highlights the structure and contents of each of the statements.

District-Wide Statements

The district-wide statements report information about the BOCES as a whole using accounting methods similar to those used by private-sector companies. The statement of net position includes all of the BOCES assets and liabilities. All of the current year's revenues and expenses are accounted for in the statement of activities regardless of when cash is received or paid.

The two district-wide statements report the BOCES net positions and how it has changed. Net position – the difference between the BOCES assets and liabilities – is one way to measure the BOCES financial health or position.

- Over time, increases or decreases in the BOCES net position are an indicator of whether its financial position is improving or deteriorating, respectively.
- To assess the BOCES overall health, you need to consider additional non-financial factors such as changes in the levels of services purchased by both component and non-component school districts as well as the condition of school buildings and other facilities.

In the district-wide financial statements, the BOCES activities are shown as Governmental activities: Most of the BOCES basic services are included here, such as regular and special education, general instruction, instructional support services, and administration. Revenues from school districts and grant funds finance most of these activities.

Fund Financial Statements

The fund financial statements provide more detailed information about the BOCES funds, focusing on its most significant or "major" funds – not the BOCES as a whole. Funds are accounting devices the BOCES uses to keep track of specific sources of funding and spending on particular programs:

- Some funds are required by State law and by bond covenants.
- The BOCES establishes other funds to control and to manage money for particular purposes (such as repaying its long-term debts) or to show that it is properly using certain revenues (such as Federal grants).
- The BOCES has two kinds of funds:
 - Governmental Funds: Most of the BOCES basic services are included in governmental funds, which generally focus on (1) how cash and other financial assets that can readily be converted to cash flow in and out and (2) the balances left at year end that are available for spending. Consequently, the governmental funds statements provide a detailed short-term view that helps you determine whether there are more or fewer financial resources that can be spent in the near future to finance the BOCES programs. Because this information does not encompass the additional long-term focus of the district-wide statements, additional information at the bottom of the governmental funds statements explains the relationship (or differences) between them.
 - Fiduciary Funds: The BOCES is the trustee, or fiduciary, for assets that belong to others, such as the scholarship fund and the student activities funds. The BOCES is responsible for ensuring that the assets reported in these funds are used only for their intended purposes and by those to whom the assets belong. The BOCES excludes these activities from the district-wide financial statements because it cannot use these assets to finance its operations.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS OF THE BOCES AS A WHOLE

While the GASB 34 district-wide reporting requirements do significantly change the financial presentation of the BOCES, it is important for those reviewing the attached audit to pay particular attention to pages 18 and 19, which analyze the BOCES financial health on a fund basis. The reader will note that these reports, which are more in line with what was presented prior to the implementation of GASB 34, demonstrate that the BOCES financial health is sound.

Considering the impact of COVID-19 on all schools and BOCES, we are pleased to report that the overall enrollment in BOCES instructional programs was sustained throughout the 2019-2020 school year. While there was some decline in certain program ratios, particularly the 8-1-1 and 12-1-1 programs, this is not out of alignment with current trends in student program needs. The newly created 6-1-2 program did not materialize and will not be running in the upcoming school year. The special education program ratio with the strongest enrollment continues to be the 8-1-3 program. The Alternative Education and Career & Technical Education programs had stable enrollments, with Public Safety having the largest class enrollment. Growth in non-instructional Coter services has also continued and the BOCES re-introduced the Learning Tech Coter in the ISS Division to respond to both the tech support and the software support needs of our component districts. While the BOCES did plan for the relocation of some instructional programs in the next school year, additional instructional space constraints are still a challenge for the near future. The BOCES continues to collaborate with its educational partners including SUNY Sullivan as we have relocated additional CTE programs to the college campus and worked to increase the number of credits in our articulation agreements with the college. As school districts/BOCES face unprecedented challenges due to COVID-19, we anticipate continued variations in BOCES service level participation. We realize that in some areas of the organization where services are more discretionary in nature we will likely experience some decline in service requests. However, the fiscal challenges we will all be facing will also create opportunities for new shared programs.

Finally, the BOCES will be returning a surplus/refund to its districts based on its 2019-2020 year-end financials.

Explanations: Sullivan BOCES experienced varying program increases and decreases in expenditures from fiscal year 2019 to 2020 based on enrollment and service subscription levels. In the instructional program areas expenditures increased based on staffing and program needs including the staff/student class ratios in the students with disabilities programs. The reduction in itinerant services is a result of various changes in subscription levels particularly with psychologist and cross-contracted guidance services. General Instruction expenditures remained stable. Instructional Support Services and Management services decreased, with the decline in management services attributed to a reduction in cross-contracted services, telecommunications expenditures and cooperative recruitment expenditures.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS OF THE BOCES FUNDS

An analysis of the general fund budgetary and actual activity can be found on pages 53 and 54 of these statements. The General Fund activities resulted in an overall excess of revenues over expenditures in the amount of $7,769,311.

CAPITAL ASSET AND DEBT ADMINISTRATION

Capital Assets

Acquisitions for Governmental Activities totaled $1,103,276. The significant portion of this amount related to the construction of the modular classrooms for the 8:1:3 program and related services.

Depreciation expense for the 2019-2020 year was $466,361.

The Sullivan County BOCES Capital Assets total $5,979,486 net of $9,679,361 in accumulated depreciation. The buildings have a net carrying value of $3,496,286 while equipment/furniture has a net carrying value of $1,318,599. It should be noted that the BOCES total assets are relatively low due to the fact that it rents the majority of its facilities.

Long-Term Liabilities

Compensated Absences liabilities increased a little more during the 2019-2020 school the year. The Other Post-Employment Benefits reflect the actuarial valuation of additional year OPEB costs less actual retirement benefits paid within the year. BOCES had more retirees in the 2019-2020 school year than the prior year and several of these retirements were unanticipated. Net Pension Liability represents the adoption of GASB 75 – Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits Other than Pensions. Please refer to Note 13 beginning on Page 44 for an explanation of GASB 75.

FACTORS BEARING ON THE BOCES' FUTURE

Sullivan BOCES continues to be committed to its goal of working collaboratively with its component school districts to develop and implement quality educational programs and support services that meet district needs. In addition, we continue to foster relationships with our community partners including, SUNY Sullivan, Catskill Regional Medical Center, Center for Workforce Development, the Sullivan County Chamber, WJFF and the Sullivan County Partnership. As schools and other municipalities face reductions in state and federal funding sources, now more than ever we need to continue to work together to consolidate services where applicable and continue to expand the availability of shared resources.

As we all faced the unexpected transition to working and learning in a remote environment in the Spring of 2020, students and employees had varying levels of access to internet service as well as varying levels of technical skills. As a result the demand for additional professional development in the areas of using technology in remote classroom settings as well as remote working environments will remain. The BOCES will also continue to collaborate with its components school districts to support initiatives that focus on increasing student achievement and enhancing educational program opportunities in the region. In addition to our instructional offerings, the BOCES maintains its commitment to continue to work with districts to support back-office systems, especially when it comes to introducing opportunities for increased use of technology. We have often cited maximizing efficiencies as a main benefit for the use of technology, however, having worked through a pandemic the use of technology enabled districts to maintain its operations and now more than ever it is critical to increase the utilization of online systems as well as introduce paperless procedures in areas that have still maintained their paper dependency.

Recruiting qualified staff for teaching and administrative positions remains a challenge for all schools in the County. In addition, certain civil service positions have become more difficult to fill due to the lack of available lists for competitive positions as a result of the state suspending civil service exams. It is the hope of the BOCES that the state will begin offering competitive exams again in the near future or develop an alternative to the current in-person exam process. With the increase in the unemployment rate, the BOCES is also optimistic that non-competitive positions will also have a greater pool of viable applicants.

The BOCES completed its eight (8) classroom modular project in the second half of the 2019-2020 school year, with staff from the elementary 8-1-3 programs relocating their classrooms to the modular in February of 2020. The generator remediation project was finally completed in the Spring of 2020 and plans for the second half of the roof replacement for the E-Wing were also prepared for NYSED submission. Unfortunately, the pandemic impeded our ability to continue to use the classroom space that was leased from Catskill Regional Medical Center for health related Career & Tech courses. As a result, the BOCES began working with SUNY Sullivan to lease additional space on the college campus to accommodate the health programs as well as plan for the relocation of the Innovative Design program. Renovation work was also completed on the Sullivan BOCES Offices and Conference Center building and despite the pandemic BOCES relocated its operations to the new location in the Spring of 2020.

Despite the challenges that all schools faced in 2020, Sullivan BOCES remains dedicated to collaborating with its component school districts to assist them with meeting both their instructional and non-instructional service needs. As the County recovers from the devastating economic impact of COVID-19, the BOCES is designed to be a conduit for regionalization and consolidation of services and is prepared to work with its partners to continue to develop new initiatives as well as adjust services as needed to meet the demands of the current learning and working environments. As many schools in the area continue to experience declining enrollment and the fiscal climate becomes even more challenging for educational organizations throughout the state, the BOCES is positioned to support the needs of its component and participant school districts as well as the community as a whole.

Amounts reported for governmental activities in the statement of activities are different because:
Capital outlays are reported in governmental funds as expenditures. However, on the statement of activities, the cost of those assets is allocated over their estimated useful lives as depreciation expense. This is the amount by which capital outlays exceeded depreciation in the current fiscal year.
Depreciation Expenses	(466,361)
Capital Outlay	1,103,276	636,915	389,069
In the statement of activities, certain operating expenses are measured by the amounts earned during the year. In the governmental funds, however, expenditures for these items are reported in the amount of financial resources used (paid). When the earned amount exceeds the paid amount, the difference is a reduction in the reconciliation; when paid amount exceeds the earned amount, the difference is an addition to the reconciliation.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1– SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements of the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) as applied to governmental units. Those principles are prescribed by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB), which is the accepted standard-setting body for establishing governmental accounting and financial reporting principles.

Certain significant accounting principles and policies utilized by the BOCES are described below:

A. Financial Reporting Entity

The BOCES is governed by the Education Law and other laws of the State of New York. The governing body is the Board of Education. The scope of activities included within the accompanying financial statements are those transactions that comprise BOCES operations, and are governed by, or significantly influenced by, the Board of Education.

The Boards of Cooperative Educational Services were established by New York State Legislation in 1948 to enable smaller school districts to offer more breadth in their educational programs by sharing teachers. In 1955, Legislation was passed allowing Boards of Cooperative Educational Services to provide vocational and special education. The Boards of Cooperative Educational Services are voluntary, cooperative associations of school districts in a geographic area that share planning, services, and programs to provide educational and support activities more economically, efficiently, and equitably than could be provided locally. The BOCES provides instructional support programs and services to the following eight school districts in New York's Sullivan County:

1. Eldred Central School District
2. Fallsburg Central School District
3. Liberty Central School District
4. Livingston Manor Central School District
5. Monticello Central School District
6. Roscoe Central School District
7. Sullivan West Central School District
8. Tri-Valley Central School District

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

BOCES' programs and services include special education, vocational education, academic and alternative programs, summer school, staff development computer services (management and instructional), educational communication, and cooperative purchasing.

The financial reporting entity consists of the following, as defined by GASB Statement 14, "The Financial Reporting Entity":

1. The primary government, which is the BOCES;
2. Organizations for which the primary government is financially accountable; and
3. Other organizations for which the nature and significance of their relationship with the primary government are such that exclusion would cause the reporting entity's general purpose financial statements to be misleading or incomplete.

The decision to include a potential component unit in the reporting entity is based on the criteria set forth in GASB Statement 14, including legal standing, fiscal dependency, and financial accountability. Based on the application of these criteria, the following is a summary of certain entities considered in determining the BOCES' reporting entity.

Included in the Reporting Entity:

The Extraclassroom Activity Funds of the BOCES represent funds of the students of the BOCES. The Board of Education exercises general oversight of these funds. The extraclassroom activity funds are independent of the BOCES with respect to its financial transactions and designation of student management, and the cash and investment balances are reported in the agency fund of BOCES. Separate audited financial statements (cash basis) of the extraclassroom activity funds can be found beginning on page 65 of these financial statements.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

B. Basis of Presentation

I. Government-Wide Statements:

The Statement of Net Position and the Statement of Activities present financial information about the BOCES governmental activities. These statements include the financial activities of the overall government in its entirety, except those that are fiduciary. Eliminations have been made to minimize the double counting of internal transactions. Governmental activities generally are financed through taxes, state aid, intergovernmental revenues, and other exchange and non-exchange transactions. Operating grants include operating-specific and discretionary (either operating or capital) grants, while the capital grants column reflects capital-specific grants.

The Statement of Activities presents a comparison between direct expenses and program revenues for each function of the BOCES governmental activities. Direct expenses are those that are specifically associated with and are clearly identifiable to a particular function. Program revenues include charges paid by the recipients of goods or services offered by the programs, and grants and contributions that are restricted to meeting the operational or capital requirements of a particular program. Revenues that are not classified as program revenues are presented as general revenues.

II. Fund Financial Statements:

The fund statements provide information about the BOCES's funds, including fiduciary funds. Separate statements for each fund category (governmental and fiduciary) are presented. The emphasis of fund financial statements is on major governmental funds each displayed in a separate column.

The BOCES reports the following major governmental funds:

a. General Fund:

This is the BOCES primary operating fund. It accounts for all financial transactions that are not required to be accounted for in another fund.

b. Special Revenue Funds:

Special revenue funds are used to account for the proceeds of specific revenue sources that are legally restricted to expenditure for specified purposes. Special revenue funds include the following funds:

1. Special Aid Fund – Special Aid Fund is used to account for special operating projects or programs supported as a whole, or in part, with Federal funds or State or Local Grants.
2. School Lunch Fund – School Lunch Fund is used to account for transactions of lunch, breakfast and milk programs.

The BOCES reports the following non-major governmental fund:

a. Capital Projects Funds:

These funds are used to account for the financial resources used for acquisition construction, or major repair of capital facilities.

Additionally, the BOCES reports the following fund types:

a. Fiduciary Fund:

This fund is used to account for fiduciary activities. Fiduciary activities are those in which the BOCES acts as trustee or agent for resources that belong to others. These activities are not included in the government-wide financial statements, because their resources do not belong to the BOCES, and are not available to be used.

Private Purpose Trust Fund

These funds are used to account for trust arrangements in which principal and income benefit third parties and scholarships for students. Established criteria govern the use of the funds and members of the BOCES or representatives of the donors may serve on committees to determine who benefits.

Agency Fund

These funds are strictly custodial in nature and do not involve the measurement of results of operations. Assets are held by the BOCES as agent for various student groups or extraclassroom activity funds and for payroll or employee withholding.

C. Measurement Focus and Basis of Accounting

The government-wide and fiduciary fund financial statements are reported using the economic resources measurement focus and the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded at the time liabilities are incurred, regardless of when the related cash transaction takes place. Non-exchange transactions, in which the BOCES gives or receives value without directly receiving or giving equal value in exchange, include grants and donations. On an accrual basis, revenue from grants and donations is recognized in the fiscal year in which all eligibility requirements have been satisfied.

The governmental fund statements are reported using the current financial resources measurement focus and the modified accrual basis of accounting. Under this method revenues are recognized when measurable and available. The BOCES considers all revenues reported in the governmental funds to be available if the revenues are collected within one year after the end of the fiscal year.

Expenditures are recorded when the related fund liability is incurred, except for principal and interest on general long-term debt, claims and judgments, and compensated absences, which are reported as expenditures to the extent they have matured. Proceeds of general long-term debt and acquisitions under capital leases are reported as other financing sources.

D. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The BOCES' cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, demand deposits, and short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less from date of acquisition.

E. Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are shown gross, with uncollectible amounts recognized under the direct write-off method. No allowance for uncollectible accounts has been provided since it is believed that such allowance would be immaterial.

F. Inventories

Inventories of food and/or supplies in the School Lunch Fund are recorded at cost on a first-in, first-out basis, or in the case of surplus food, at stated value that approximates market. Purchases of inventory items in other funds are recorded as expenditures at the time of purchase, and are considered immaterial in amount.

G. Interfund Activity

The amounts reported on the Statement of Net Position for due to and due from other funds represents amounts due between different fund types (governmental activities and fiduciary funds). Eliminations have been made for amounts due to and due from within the same fund type. A detailed description of the individual fund balances at year-end is provided subsequently in these Notes.

H. Capital Assets

Capital assets are reported at actual cost for acquisitions. Donated assets are reported at acquisition value at the time received.

Capitalizations thresholds (the dollar value above which asset acquisitions are added to the capital asset accounts), depreciation methods, and estimated useful lives of capital assets reported in the BOCES-wide statements are as follows:

	Capitalization Threshold	Depreciation Method	Estimated Useful Life
Buildings	$ 5,000	Straight-Line	50 Years
Building Improvements	5,000	Straight-Line	25 Years
Site Improvements	5,000	Straight-Line	20 Years
Furniture and Equipment	5,000	Straight-Line	5-15 Years

In the fund financial statements, fixed assets used in governmental fund operations are accounted for as capital outlay expenditures of the governmental fund upon acquisition. Fixed assets are not capitalized and related depreciation is not reported in the governmental fund financial statements.

I. Vested Employee Benefits

The BOCES employees are granted vacation in varying amounts, based primarily on length of service and service position. Some earned benefits may be forfeited if not taken within varying time periods.

Sick leave eligibility and accumulation is specified in negotiated labor contracts, and in individual employment contracts. Upon retirement, resignation, or death, employees may receive a payment based on unused accumulation sick leave, based on contractual provisions.

Consistent with GASB Statement 16, Accounting for Compensated Absences, an accrual for accumulated vacation and sick leave is included in the compensated absences liability at year-end. The compensated absences liability is calculated based on the pay rates in effect at year end.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

For the government-wide statements, the current portion is the amount estimated to be used in the following year, in accordance with GAAP. For the governmental funds, in the fund financial Statements, all of the compensated absences are considered long-term and therefore, are not a fund liability and represent a reconciling item between the fund level and government-wide presentations.

BOCES employees participate in the New York State Employees' Retirement System and the New York Teachers' Retirement System. In addition to providing pension benefits, the BOCES provides health insurance coverage and survivor benefits for retired employees and their survivors. Substantially all of the BOCES' employees may become eligible for these benefits if they reach retirement age while working for the BOCES. Health care benefits are provided through plans whose premiums are based on the benefits paid during the year. Some costs of providing post-retirement benefits are shared between the BOCES and the retired employee. The BOCES recognizes the cost of providing health insurance by recording its share of insurance premiums as expenditures in the year paid. In the government-wide statements, the liability is reported at actuarially calculated amounts (See Note 13).

J. Budgetary Procedures and Budgetary Accounting

Section 1950 of the Education Law requires adoption of a final budget by no later than May 15 of the ensuing year.

The BOCES administration prepares a proposed administrative, capital, and program budget as applicable, for approval by members of the BOCES' board for the General Fund.

Appropriations for educational services are adopted at the program level.

A tentative administrative budget is provided to the component districts for adoption by resolution. Approval of the tentative administrative budget requires the approval of a majority of the component school boards actually voting. During the current year, the administrative budget was approved by a majority of its voting component school boards.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Appropriations established by the adoption of the budget constitute a limitation on expenditures (and encumbrances) that may be incurred. Appropriations lapse at the end of the fiscal year unless expended or encumbered. Encumbrances will lapse if not expended in the subsequent year. Supplemental appropriations may occur subject to legal restrictions, if the Board approves them because of a need that exists, which was not determined at the time the budget was adopted. The following supplemental appropriations occurred during the year.

Additional Contractual Services to Components and Non-Components	$ 14,234,842

Budgets are adopted annually on a basis consistent with GAAP. Appropriations for the year are increased by the amount of encumbrances carried forward from the prior year.

Special Revenue Funds have not been included in the comparison because they do not have legally authorized (appropriated) budgets.

K. Unearned Revenue

Unearned revenues are reported when potential revenues do not meet both the measurable and available criteria for recognition in the current period. Unearned revenues also arise when resources are received by the BOCES before it has legal claim to them, as when grant monies are received prior to the incidence of qualifying expenditures.

L. Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amount and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

M. Equity Classifications

In the government-wide statements there are three classes of net position:

Net investment in capital assets – consists of net capital assets (cost less accumulated depreciation) reduced by outstanding balances of related debt obligations from the acquisition, construction or improvement of those assets.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Restricted – reports net position when constraints placed on the assets are either externally imposed by creditors (such as through debt covenants), grantors, contributors, laws or regulations of other governments or imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation.

Unrestricted – reports all other net position that does not meet the definition of the above two classifications and is deemed to be available for general use by the BOCES.

Order of Use of Net Position:

When an expense is incurred for which both restricted and unrestricted resources are available, the Board will assess the current financial condition of the BOCES and determine which classification of net position will be charged.

In the fund basis statements there are five classifications of fund balance:

Non-spendable – includes amounts that cannot be spent because they are either not in spendable form or legally or contractually required to be maintained intact. Non-spendable fund balance includes the inventory recorded in the School Lunch Fund of $5,838.

Restricted – includes amounts with constraints placed on the use of resources either externally imposed by creditors, grantors, contributors or laws or regulations of other governments; or imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation. All encumbrances of funds other than the General Fund are classified as restricted fund balance. The BOCES has established the following restricted fund balances:

Unemployment Insurance

Used to pay the cost of reimbursement to the State Unemployment Insurance Fund for payments made to claimants where the employer has elected to use the benefit reimbursement method. The reserve may be established by Board action and is funded by budgetary appropriations and such other funds as may be legally appropriated. This reserve is accounted for in the General Fund.

Employee Benefit Accrued Liability

Used to reserve funds for the payment of any accrued employee benefit due an employee upon termination. The reserve is established by a majority vote of the Board of Education and is funded by budgetary appropriations and such other funds that may be legally appropriated. This reserve is accounted for in the General Fund.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF CERTAIN SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Workers' Compensation

Used to pay for compensation benefits and other expenses authorized by Article 2 of the Workers' Compensation Law, and for payment of expenses of administering this self-insurance program. The reserve may be established by Board action, and is funded by budgetary appropriations and such other funds as may be legally appropriated. This reserve is accounted for in the General Fund.

CTE Equipment

Used to reserve funds for the purchase of equipment for the Career and Technical Education program. The reserve is established by a majority vote of the BOCES' Board and a majority of the component school district boards and expenditures must be approved by the BOCES' Board and the State Education Department. This reserve is accounted for in the General Fund.

Retirement Contributions

Used to pay contributions to the NYS Employees Retirement System and NYS Teachers Retirement System. This reserve is accounted for in the General Fund.

Committed – includes amounts that can only be used for a specific purpose pursuant to constraints imposed by formal action of the BOCES' highest level of decision making authority before the end of the fiscal year, and requires the same level of formal action to remove the constraint. The Board of Education is the decision making authority that can, by resolution prior to the end of the fiscal year, commit fund balance. The BOCES has no committed fund balances as of June 30, 2020.

Assigned – includes amounts that are subject to a purpose constraint that represents an intended use established by the government's highest level of decision making authority, or by their designated official. The purpose of the assignment must be narrower than the purpose of the General Fund, and in funds other than the General Fund, assigned fund balance represents the residual amount of fund balance. Assigned fund balance generally includes encumbrances in the General Fund and appropriated fund balance. The Board of Education is the decision making authority that can, by resolution, assign fund balance. The BOCES reported encumbrances of $48,963 as assigned fund balance in the General Fund as of June 30, 2020.

Unassigned – represents the residual classification for the General Fund, and could report a surplus or deficit. In funds other than the General Fund, the unassigned classification should be used only to report a deficit fund balance resulting from overspending for specific purposes for which amounts had been restricted, committed or assigned.

Order of Use of Fund Balance:

When resources are available from multiple fund balance classifications, the Board will assess the current financial condition of the BOCES and then determine the order of application of expenditures to which fund balance classification will be charged.

N. New Accounting Standards

The BOCES has adopted all current Statements of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) that are applicable. At June 30, 2020, the BOCES implemented the following new standards issued by GASB:

GASB 95 – Postponement of the Effective Dates of Certain Authoritative Guidance.

O. Future Accounting Standards

The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) has issued the following standards that will become effective in future fiscal years:

GASB 84 – Fiduciary Activities, effective for the year ending June 30, 2021.

GASB 87 – Leases, effective for the year ending June 30, 2022.

GASB 89 – Accounting for Interest Cost Incurred Before the End of a Construction Period, effective for the year ending June 30, 2022.

GASB 90 – Majority Equity Interests – An Amendment of GASB Statements No. 14 and No. 61, effective for the year ending June 30, 2021.

GASB 91 – Conduit Debt Obligations, effective for the year ending June 30, 2023.

GASB 92 – Omnibus, effective for the year ending June 30, 2022.

The BOCES will evaluate the impact of each of these pronouncements may have on its financial statements and will implement them as applicable and when material.

P. Deferred Outflows/Inflows of Resources

In addition to assets, the Statement of Net Position will sometimes report a separate section for deferred outflows of resources. This separate financial statement element, deferred outflows of resources, represents a consumption of net position that applies to a future period and so will not be recognized as an outflow of resources (expense/expenditure) until then. The government has three items that qualify for reporting in this category. The first item is related to pensions reported in the district-wide Statement of Net Position. This represents the effect of the net change in the BOCES's proportion of the collective net pension asset or liability and difference during the measurement period between the BOCES' contributions and its proportionate share of total contributions to the pension systems not included in pension expense. The second item is the BOCES contributions to the pension systems (TRS and ERS Systems) and OPEB subsequent to the measurement date. The third item relates to OPEB reporting in the district-wide Statement of Net Position. This represents the effect of the net change in the actual and expected experience. The BOCES reports $8,899,208 in deferred outflows of resources related to pensions and $4,364,562 in deferred outflows of resources related to the Total OPEB Liability as of June 30, 2020.

In addition to liabilities, the statement of net position will sometimes report a separate section for deferred inflows of resources. This separate financial statement element, deferred inflows of resources, represents an acquisition of net position that applies to future period(s) and so will not be recognized as an inflow of resources (revenue) until that time. The BOCES has two items that qualify for reporting in this category. The first item is related to pensions reported in the district-wide Statement of Net Position. This represents the effect of the net change in the BOCES' proportion of the collective net pension liability (ERS System) and difference during the measurement periods between the BOCES' contributions and its proportionate share of total contributions to the pension system not included in pension expense. The second item is related to OPEB reported in the district-wide Statement of Net Position. This represents the effect of the net changes of assumptions or other inputs. The BOCES reports $2,323,347 in deferred inflows of resources related to pensions and $13,082,573 in deferred inflows of resources related to the Total OPEB Liability as of June 30, 2020.

The reporting of deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to pensions resulted in a net increase of $6,575,861 to unrestricted net position as of June 30, 2020.

The reporting of deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources related to the Total OPEB Liability resulted in a net decrease of $8,718,011 to unrestricted net position as of June 30, 2020.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 2- EXPLANATION OF CERTAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN GOVERNMENTAL
FUND STATEMENTS AND BOCES-WIDE STATEMENTS

Due to differences in the measurement focus and basis of accounting used in the governmental fund statements and the government-wide statements, certain financial transactions are treated differently. The basic financial statements contain a full reconciliation of these items. The differences result primarily from the economic focus of the Statement of Activities, compared with the current financial resources focus of the governmental funds.

A. Total Fund Balances of Governmental Funds vs. Net Position of Governmental Activities:

Total fund balances of the BOCES' governmental funds differ from "net position" of governmental activities reported in the Statement of Net Position. This difference primarily results from the additional long-term economic focus of the Statement of Net Position versus the solely current financial resources focus of the governmental fund Balance Sheets.

B. Statement of Revenues, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balance vs. Statement of Activities:

Differences between the governmental funds Statement of Revenues, Expenditures, and Changes in Fund Balance and the Statement of Activities fall into one of three broad categories:

a. Long-Term Revenue Differences:

Long-term revenue differences arise because governmental funds report revenues only when they are considered "available", whereas the Statement of Activities reports revenues when earned. Differences in long-term expenses arise because governmental funds report on a modified accrual basis, whereas the accrual basis of accounting is used on the Statement of Activities.

b. Capital Related Differences:

Capital related differences include the difference between proceeds for the sale of capital assets reported on governmental fund statements and the gain or loss on the sale of assets as reported on the Statement of Activities, and the difference between recording an expenditure for the purchase of capital items in the governmental fund statements and depreciation expense on those items as recorded in the Statement of Activities.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 2- EXPLANATION OF CERTAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN GOVERNMENTAL

c. Long-Term Debt Transaction Differences:

Long-term debt transactions differences occur because both interest and principal payments are recorded as expenditures in the governmental fund statements, whereas interest payments are recorded in the Statement of Activities as incurred, and principal payments are recorded as a reduction of liabilities in the Statement of Net Position.

NOTE 3 – CASH AND INVESTMENTS

The BOCES' investment policies are governed by State statutes. In addition the BOCES has its own written investment policy. BOCES monies must be deposited in FDIC-insured commercial banks or trust companies located within the State. The treasurer is authorized to use demand accounts and certificates of deposit. Permissible investments include obligations of the U.S. Treasury and U.S. Agencies, and obligations of New York State or its localities.

Collateral is required for time deposits and certificates of deposit not covered by federal deposit insurance. Obligations that may be pledged as collateral are obligations of the United States and its agencies and obligations of New York State and states other than New York and their municipalities and school districts.

The BOCES' aggregate cash balances include balances not covered by depository insurance at year end, collateralized as follows:

Collateralized with securities held by the pledging financial institution, or its trust department, but not in the BOCES' name. $ 21,118,140

NOTE 7 – PENSION PLANS

General Information

The BOCES participates in the New York State Employees' Retirement System (NYSERS) and the New York State Teachers' System (NYSTRS). These are cost-sharing multiple employer public employee retirement systems. The Systems offer a wide range of plans and benefits, which are related to years of service and final average salary, vesting of retirement benefits, death, and disability.

Plan Descriptions

The New York State Teachers' Retirement Board administers NYSTRS. The System provides benefits to plan members and beneficiaries as authorized by the Education Law and the Retirement and Social Security Law of the State of New York. NYSTRS issued a publicly available financial report that contains financial statements and required supplementary information for the System. The report may be obtained by writing to NYSTRS, 10 Corporate Woods Drive, Albany, New York 12211-2395.

SULLIVAN COUNTY BOCES

NOTE 7 – PENSION PLANS (Continued)

NYSERS provides retirement benefits as well as death and disability benefits. New York State Retirement and Social Security Law governs obligations of employers and employees to contribute, and benefits to employees. The System issues a publicly available financial report that includes financial statements and required supplementary information. That report may be obtained by writing to NYSERS, Governor Alfred E. Smith State Office Building, Albany, New York 12244.

Funding Policy

Plan members who joined the Systems before July 27, 1976 are not required to make contributions. Those joining after July 27, 1976 and prior to January 1, 2010, with less than ten years of service, are required to contribute 3% of their salary.

Those joining the NYSERS on or after January 1, 2010 and before April 1, 2012, contribute 3% of their salary throughout their entire working career. Those joining after April 1, 2012 contribute 3% of their salary through March 31, 2013, and beginning April 1, 2013, contribute at rates ranging from 3% to 6%, dependent upon their salary, for their entire working career.

Those joining the NYSTRS on or after January 1, 2010 and before April 1, 2012 contribute 3.5% of their salary throughout their entire working career. Those joining on or after April 1, 2012 are required to contribute between 3% and 6%, dependent on their salary, for their entire working career.

For the NYSTRS, employers are required to contribute at an actuarially determined rate, currently 8.86% of the annually covered payroll for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020. Rates applicable to the fiscal years ended June 30, 2019 and 2018, were 10.63% and 9.80%, respectively. For the NYSERS, the NYS Comptroller annually certifies the actuarially determined rates expressed used in computing the employers' contributions based on salaries paid during the Systems' fiscal year ending March 31.

Contributions for the current year and two preceding years were equal to 100 percent of the contributions required, and were as follows:

	NYSTRS	NYSERS
2020	$ 968,541	$ 721,451
2019	1,134,085	669,462
2018	1,034,856	690,351

NOTE 8 – RISK MANAGEMENT

The BOCES is exposed to various risk of loss related to torts, theft, damage, injuries, errors and omissions, natural disasters, and other risks. These risks are covered by commercial insurance purchased from independent third parties.

NOTE 8 – RISK MANAGEMENT (Continued)

A. Risk Financing and Related Insurance

I. Pool, Non-Risk Retained:

The BOCES incurs costs related to an employee health insurance plan (Plan) sponsored by Dutchess County BOCES and its component districts.

The Plan's objectives are to formulate, develop, and administer a program of insurance to obtain lower costs for that coverage, and to develop a comprehensive loss control program. Districts joining the Plan must remain members for a minimum of five (5) years; a member may withdraw from the plan after that time by providing 180 days' written notice. The Plan was organized for the purpose of providing insurance coverage at a lower rate for members of educational institutions due to a large participation pool.

Accordingly, the Plan reinsures 100 percent of all coverage and does not retain any loss experience. Financial statements for the Plan are available from the administrator at 5 BOCES Road, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601.

II. Pool, Risk-Related Retained:

The BOCES incurs costs related to a workers' compensation insurance plan (Plan) sponsored by itself and its component districts. The Plan's objectives are to formulate, develop, and administer a program of insurance to obtain lower costs for that coverage, and to develop a comprehensive loss control program. Districts joining the Plan must remain members for a minimum of one (1) year; a member may withdraw from the plan after that time by providing written notice by March 1, prior to the end of the Plan year. Plan's members are subject to a supplemental assessment in the event of deficiencies.

If the Plan's assets were to be exhausted, the members would be responsible for the Plan's liabilities. During the year ended June 30, 2020, the BOCES incurred premiums for contribution expenditures totaling $487,334.

NOTE 9 – CONTINGENCIES

A. The BOCES has received grants, which are subject to audit by agencies of the State and Federal Governments. Such audits may result in disallowances and request for a return of funds. Based on prior audits, the BOCES administration believes disallowances, if any, will be immaterial.

B. COVID - 19

In the early months of 2020, the COVID – 19 pandemic spread quickly around the world, causing significant shutdowns of economic activity. As a result, the BOCES had to switch to remote learning and incurred unanticipated costs related to the conversion. The ultimate cost of the shutdown and the effect, if any, on future State and Federal funding sources cannot be determined at this time. However, the BOCES has been notified by NYS that certain State Aid payments will be reduced by 20% beginning with fiscal year end 2020 receivables and into fiscal 2021. The State may eventually turn over this money to the BOCES depending on whether they receive assistance from the federal government. Since the receipt of this money is based on future events that are not within the BOCES' control, the withheld money has not been included in the BOCES' financial statements, and will be recognized if, and when, the aid is actually received. Since the aid received is passed through to the participating school districts, the reduction has no net effect on the BOCES' fund balance. For the year ended June 30, 2020, the BOCES' financial statements have been reduced as a result of the NYS withholding as follows:

Assets	Amount
State and Federal Aid Receivable	$ 906,135
Liability
BOCES Aid Payable to Districts	$ 906,135

General Information about the OPEB Plan

Plan Description - The healthcare plan is a defined benefit OPEB plan, provides OPEB for all permanent full-time general and public safety employees of the BOCES. The plan is a pay as you go funding plan. The plan is a single-employer defined benefit OPEB plan administered by the BOCES. Article 11 of the State Compiled Statutes grants the authority to establish and amend the benefit terms and financing requirements to the Board of Education. No assets are accumulated in a trust that meets the criteria in paragraph 4 of Statement 75.

Benefits Provided -The BOCES provides healthcare benefits for retirees, their dependents and surviving spouses. The benefit terms and contributions required by retirees vary based on the union contract that governs the employee, and years of service with the BOCES. The District also reimburses the cost of Medicare Part B premiums to both retirees and covered spouses. Retirees and surviving spouses contribute at rates ranging from 50% to 80% of premiums depending on the type of coverage and the individual contractual terms.

Employees Covered by Benefit Terms – At June 30, 2020, the following employees were covered by the benefit terms:

Inactive employees or beneficiaries currently receiving benefit payments	148
Active Employees	283
	431

Total OPEB Liability

The BOCES' total OPEB liability of $63,841,103 was measured as of June 30, 2019, using an actuarial valuation as of July 1, 2018.

Actuarial Assumptions and Other Inputs – The total OPEB liability in the actuarial valuation was determined using the following actuarial assumptions and other inputs, applied to all periods included in the measurement, unless otherwise specified.

Pension Liabilities, Pension Expense, and Deferred Outflows of Resources and Deferred
Inflows of Resources Related to Pensions

At June 30, 2020, the BOCES reported the following asset/(liability) for its proportionate share of the net pension asset/(liability) for each of the Systems. The net pension asset/(liability) was measured as of March 31, 2020 for ERS and June 30, 2019 for TRS. The total pension asset/(liability) used to calculate the net pension asset/(liability) was determined by an actuarial valuation. The BOCES' proportion of the net pension asset/(liability) was based on a projection of the BOCES' long-term share of contributions to the Systems relative to the projected contributions of all participating members, actuarially determined. This information was provided by the ERS and TRS Systems in reports provided to the BOCES.

For ERS, annuitant mortality rates are based on April 1, 2010-March 31, 2015 System's experience with adjustments for mortality improvements based on MP-2018. For TRS, annuitant mortality rates are based on plan member experience with adjustments for mortality improvements based on Society of Actuaries Scale MP-2014, applied on a generational basis.

For ERS, the actuarial assumptions used in the April 1, 2019 valuation are based on the results of an actuarial experience study for the period April 1, 2010-March 31, 2015. For TRS, the actuarial assumptions used in the June 30, 2018 valuation are based on the results of an actuarial experience study for the period July 1, 2009-June 30, 2014.

The long term rate of return on pension plan investments was determined using a building block method in which best estimate ranges of expected future real rates of return (expected returns net of investment expense and inflation) are developed for each major asset class. These ranges are combined to produce the long term expected rate of return by weighting the expected future rates of return by each the target asset allocation percentage and by adding expected inflation. Best estimates of the arithmetic real rates of return for each major asset class included in the target asset allocation are summarized below:

Discount Rate

The discount rate used to calculate the total pension liability was 6.80% for ERS and 7.10% for TRS. The projection of cash flows used to determine the discount rate assumes that contributions from plan members will be made at the current contribution rates and that contributions from employees will be made at statutorily required rates, actuarially. Based upon the assumptions, the Systems' fiduciary net position was projected to be available to make all projected future benefit payments of current plan members. Therefore the long term expected rate of return on pension plan investments was applied to all periods of projected benefit payments to determine the total pension liability.

Sensitivity of the Proportionate Share for the Net Pension Liability to the Discount Rate Assumption

The following presents the BOCES' proportionate share of the net pension liability calculated using the discount rate of 6.80% for ERS and 7.10% for TRS, as well as what the BOCES' proportionate share of the net pension asset /(liability) would be if it were calculated using a discount rate that is 1-percentagepoint lower (5.80% for ERS and 6.10% for TRS) or 1-percentage point higher (7.80% for ERS and 8.10% for TRS) than the current rate:

Payables to the Pension Plan

For ERS, employer contributions are paid annually based on the System's fiscal year which ends on March 31st. Accrued retirement contributions as of June 30 represent the projected employer contribution for the period of April 1 through June 30 based on paid ERS wages multiplied by the employer's contribution rate, by tier. Accrued retirement contributions as of June 30, 2020 amounted to $215,340.

For TRS, employer and employee contributions for the fiscal year ended June 30 are paid to the System in September, October, and November through a state aid intercept. Accrued retirement contributions as of June 30 represent employee and employer contributions for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2020 based on paid TRS wages multiplied by the employer's contribution rate by tier, and employee contributions for the fiscal year as reported to the TRS System. Accrued retirement contributions as of June 30, 2020 amounted to $1,092,129.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER
FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS
BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Trustees
Sullivan County Board of
Cooperative Educational Services
Liberty, New York

We have audited, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the governmental activities, each major fund and the aggregate remaining fund information of the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES), New York as of and for the year ended June 30, 2020, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's basic financial statements and have issued our report thereon dated October 7, 2020.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Sullivan County BOCES, New York's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the result of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the entity's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
OF THE EXTRACLASSROOM ACTIVITY FUNDS

To the Board of Education
Sullivan County Board of
Cooperative Educational Services
Liberty, New York

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities and fund balance – cash basis, of the Extraclassroom Activity Funds of the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) as of June 30, 2020, and the related statements of cash receipts, disbursements and changes in fund balance – cash basis for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, which collectively comprise the financial statements of the Extraclassroom Activity Funds of the Sullivan County BOCES as listed in the table of contents.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion of these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position – cash basis, of the Extraclassroom Activity Funds of the Sullivan County BOCES as of June 30, 2020, and the changes in financial position – cash basis, for the year then ended in accordance with the basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the school board governing body and management of the Extraclassroom Activity Funds of Sullivan County BOCES, and for filing with the various offices and agencies of the State of New York. This restriction is not intended to limit the distribution of this report, which is a matter of public record.

EXTRACLASROOM ACTIVITY FUNDS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2020

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF OPERATIONS

As the Sullivan County Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES), through its Board of Education, has oversight responsibility over the Extraclassroom Activity Funds, such funds are considered a component unit of the Sullivan County BOCES. Accordingly, such transactions are blended with the other Trust Funds of the BOCES in its basic financial statements under the Agency Fund.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The books and records of the Sullivan County BOCES' Extraclassroom Activity Funds are maintained on the cash basis of accounting. Under this basis of accounting, revenues are recognized when cash is received and expenditures are recognized when cash is disbursed. Therefore, receivables and payables, inventories, long-lived assets, and accrued income and expenses, which would be recognized under generally accepted accounting principles and which may be material in amount, are not recognized in the accompanying financial statements.
