

UNITED PATTERSON PROFILE - GENEVIEVE VALENTINE

Genevieve Valentine is the daughter of Mr. Richard Greer and Ms. Teresa Valentine and a proud graduate of Patterson High School, class of 1998. While attending Patterson High, she participated in cheerleading, basketball, softball, choir, and student government. After PHS, Genevieve attended Saint Mary's

College of California double majoring in Communications and Religious Studies. Upon graduation from SMC in 2003, Genevieve pursued and obtained two master's degrees: MA in Educational Leadership and MA in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in trauma and is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. Genevieve has been a lifelong public servant working in Alaska, Merced County and San Joaquin County. In April 2025, she was appointed the first female Health Care Services Agency Director in San Joaquin County history. Genevieve credits her success to a very good guardian angel, patient parents, and the desire to make her siblings and nieces/nephews proud.
