United States Senate Youth Program & Scholarship (USSYP)		Requires Nomination	11-12	104 students in the United States will be selected for a weeklong government and leadership leadership education program in Washington, DC, and a $10,000 undergraduate college scholarship. Delegates will hear major policy addresses by senators, cabinet members, officials of the Departments of State and Defense and leaders of other federal agencies, as well as participate in a meeting with a justice of the U.S. Supreme Court and the president of the United States. Each session includes an in-depth question and answer period. The Hearst Foundations will pay all expenses for Washington Week including transportation, hotel and meals. The Department of Defense (DoD) annually provides competitively selected men and women officers to serve as mentors and chaperones for the student delegates, and a registered nurse, licensed physician and professional security team are in place at all times throughout the week. USSYP alumni have become leaders in government, law, business, education, journalism, the military, medicine, health care, and many other fields. Alumni serve as elected and appointed officials at all levels of government including two current United States senators, a current governor, former senior political advisors to the president of the United States, former ambassadors and federal judges, congressional staffers, outstanding teachers, entrepreneurs, respected journalists, distinguished physicians, college professors, senior partners of law firms, and presidents of major corporations. The commonality to all of their success is the desire to serve.	NC State Link Link Info
