CAASE Scholarship

The CAASE Scholarship Program was created to continue the University's long-standing commitment to supporting under served and underrepresented students. Since its inception in 2017, the CAASE Scholarship program has awarded over a million dollars in scholarships to eligible students, helping to support their educational goals. Those who are selected for scholarships can receive up to $9500 a year in scholarships for up to four years, dependent on their continued eligibility for the award. The scholarship is open to all SSU undergraduate students who are a part of the Center for Academic Access & Student Enrichment programs: Disability Services for Students, DREAM Center, Educational Opportunity Program, Military and Veteran Resource Center, Seawolf Scholars, and TRIO Student Support Services.

Eligibility Requirements:

- + Applicant must be classified as a current or prospective degree-seeking undergraduate student at Sonoma State University and a part of any CAASE programs (Disability Services for Students, DREAM Center, Educational Opportunity Program, Military and Veteran Resource Center, Seawolf Scholars, and TRIO Student Support Services)
- + Applicant must have a minimum overall 2.5 grade point average (GPA) in their high school (if a first-time first-year/freshmen) or college-level coursework (if a current college student). GPA will be verified through Sonoma State's Registrar's office.
- + Applicant must be classified as a first-generation and/or low-income student according to SSU's financial aid system
- + Applicant must have unmet need in their financial aid award according to SSU's financial aid system
