

A Note to Undocumented Students

You can still go to college in California even with the current political climate. Keep in mind:

- In-state tuition eligibility has expanded

You may qualify for lower tuition cost even if you didn't attend 3 years of high school in California. Check if you qualify with our In-State Tuition Tool: immigrantsrising.org/istt.

- CA Dream Act is still in place

Submit your application before March 2 at dream.csac.ca.gov.
Learn more: immigrantsrising.org/cadreamact.

- Scholarships are always available

Scholarships can help you cover the cost of attending college. Our scholarship resources are open to all students regardless of immigration status: immigrantsrising.org/scholarshiphelp.

- On-Campus support exists

All California public colleges and universities have one or more individuals who are willing and able to support undocumented students:
bit.ly/CAUndocMap.

Keep going. You are not alone.