Y9 – Y13 Careers in the Military – Tues 11 November, Drop in 1pm – 2pm

Are you interested in a career in the Armed Forces? Come along to a special lunchtime session with Nick Reynolds, a former pupil and Sub-Lieutenant in the Royal Navy. Nick will be able to answer questions that you have about life in the Navy, different roles and the application process — he's happy to answer questions about the RAF and Army too.

Whether you're seriously considering a military career or just curious, this is a great opportunity to learn more from someone who has been in your shoes. We will be in SF15, from 1pm - 2pm. Please drop in anytime.

Y11 – Y13 Unifrog Talent Pool

The Talent pool is a new tool within Unifrog where you can show off what's special about you to employers and universities. They can then send you personalised messages about things like courses, apprenticeships, bursaries and internships. So, instead of you approaching companies and universities, the onus is on them to find suitable students and then message you if you are a great fit for their opportunities.

Join from your Unifrog homepage. Update your interests (including things like the careers you are interested in, and the skills you have developed), and your personal information (including things like whether you are the first in your family to go to university). Then, relevant employers and universities can message you about courses, apprenticeships, events and other opportunities (like scholarships or bursaries) that you would be a good fit for.

This is a great way of connecting with most UK universities, for example King's College London, the University of Edinburgh and Sheffield Hallam University, large multinational and UK nationwide employers, such as KPMG, National Grid and Forvis Mazars and also universities from around the world, such as John Hopkins University, IE University and Macquarie University, as well as numerous regional apprenticeship providers across the UK.

Y10 – Y13 – work experience

It's always great to get as much work experience as you can – both for your own development and for your CV. Employers are increasingly offering online placements so that they can reach more students. Take a look at companies like Springpod for career based experiences that you can complete in your own time.
