CHS DAILY BULLETIN

NOV 6

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- November 3rd thru 7th is National School Psychology Week! Each day we will highlight different ways that School Psychologists help students find their path. School Psychologists firmly believe that every student is entitled to an education that affirms and validates the diversity of their cultural and individual differences, fosters resilience, and facilitates well-being and positive academic and mental health outcomes.
- Come join the American Red Cross Club this Thursday during lunch in Room Two! We'll be brainstorming exciting new fundraising ideas, like a "Pie a Teacher" event that's sure to be a hit. Bring your creativity and help us plan ways to make a difference.
- If you enjoy playing games like monopoly, uno, or even Mario kart, come on down to room 184 on Fridays for games and lunch club. See you there!
- Indigenous Club will be meeting today in room 207/208 at lunch. We will be talking about Ivory carving. Stop on by.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The ASVAB is being administered at CHS on November 18th. The ASVAB is a military entrance and career exploration test. If you are interested, go see your counselor to sign up.
- Please join us in supporting the Alaska Community Foundation's efforts to help the victims of Typhoon Halong by visiting the Key Club Bake Sale in the Crossroads Today. Not in the mood for a baked good? You can also support the cause by stopping by Bear Mountain Espresso today Thursday — they'll be donating a portion of their sales to the fundraiser. Every contribution helps make a difference. Thank you for your support!
- Key Club is partnering with Bartlett High School to host a letter-writing event this Saturday, November 8th, from 12:00–2:00 PM in the cafeteria. We'll be writing letters to hospitalized children across the country — spreading kindness and hope when they need it most. Join us for food, fun, and community — and earn volunteer hours while making a difference! See you there!
