Informati... ▾

8th grade parents (Marco)- been a great year! Volleyball won! Haze felt super welcome to the team and the coaches are amazing! School is good and starting to look at high school.

*high school search is early due to paperwork having to be in early

7th-No report from parents

Caitlyn reported that 7th graders are just trying to figure themselves out. Lexia and Khan are not the best in GS. The Invention Convention is cool. Most people are enjoying 7th grade!

Invention Convention is a partnership with ASU, they host a convention of student inventions with prototype and a presentation. Not sure how far our students will go. Genius Hour projects might overlap. Ms. Sherman understands that Lexia and Khan can be rough, but the data is showing it is working

6th grade parents (Lindsey)- things are going well. They are enjoying their year. Lots of parents at conferences, gearing up for Fall Fest. All is well

5th grade (Biby)- Meadows is such a welcoming school. Has had the experience with her older daughter before. Her son is doing great and is making connections. Has noticed a jump in rigor of curriculum and thanks everyone for their work. 5th graders are at Camp FP! Having a great time. Very timely that Katy walked up a mountain to let everyone in the meeting. 😊

NJHS- induction for newest 8th graders. Had breakfast and volunteering. They are excited for the upcoming new family tours. Have about 90 kids in NJHS. Admin is hoping to use NJHS kids to take more ownership on campus. The kids celebrated IT week. Help with Ramazon. Doing great work in committee. A group did daycare for teachers children during conferences. The best experience for an 8th grade teacher, his daughter had the best time. It was a positive experience.

5th and 6th-novel studies WING and The GIVER, world lang and cultures learning about Chinese culture, fraction work going on in math using real world examples. Ms. Sherman paid attention to the

		brownie problem. 7th and 8th- 8th science classes dissected rats. One student was very into it, had all the organs out and had hunting experience, so he knew what to do Humanities classes are studying Juvenile Justice issues and had two police officers come speak and State Reps. Lugori and Gress will also come and speak. The creative writing class are working on "Perzines" personal, mini, self-published magazines. The Design class is working on 3d classroom models out of legos, 7th grade is reading the Outsiders. STUCO- Halloween fundraiser and costume contest
Approval of new clubs Arts 4 Hearts	Information ▾	Making bracelets for places of need - nursing homes. They also are thinking about bringing art kits to nursing homes. This is the brainchild of 8th graders with big hearts and big ideas. They are really excited. Approved! YAY!
Future Agenda Items What topics would you like to be brought up at the next meeting? Email cgoodfarb@madisoned.org and/or kclark@madisoned.org prior to monthly meetings for agenda topics to be added	Discussion ▾	Gym Update: Still good to open in January. So excited no more PE in cafe. There has been talk about a grand opening event. Stay tuned. Biby- we are getting a new floor due to flooding, yay! Lockers and PE coach offices being framed, windows and doors. Very exciting from this week to next. Rumor is true, we will be having a grand opening! Working on a date. Our PE teachers are so excited, they can't wait! Presenter Update: We are moving forward with that, we will have them come sometime in February. We will have a 5th and 6th and a 7th and 8th presentation. We will pick 40 students (not the usuals), other leaders that are out there not just NJHS kids. Get a smaller, more intense lesson from the speaker and they go forward and lead in a positive way. Hopefully it will snowball with the kids.
