 In the 6th Grade Wiffleball Tournament of Donuts yesterday, the championship game continued with the Littletown Lunchables up 7-6 against the Bayer Bears in the top of the 4th. The Bears were up to bat and quickly went three up/three down. In the bottom half, the Lunchables added some much-needed insurance runs with back-to-back home runs by Charlie Gilbride and Corey Ward, extending their lead to 9-6. Down to their final three outs, the Bears refused to go quietly. After two quick outs, they found a spark – a soft infield squibbler put a runner on base, and Kenzi Manhard crushed a two-run homer to bring the Bears within one. Another infield single put the tying run aboard and brought the winning run to the plate. But the Lunchables held strong. A hard ground ball was hit to Corey, who flipped it to Patrick Frey for the final out, sealing the win and crowning the Littletown Lunchables as the 2025 6th Grade Wiffle Ball Champions! Congratulations to the Littletown Lunchables and a huge thank you to all the 6th-grade teams for an exciting, action-packed season. The 7th-grade season will be starting soon. Stay tuned for more details!
