

After-School Meals Program (ASM) - FREE for Students!
Healthy Meals + Enrichment = Success

Dallas ISD's Food and Child Nutrition Services (FCNS) proudly offers the At-Risk Afterschool Meals Program, part of the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), for the 2025–2026 school year.

What's Offered:

FREE nutritious meals for students participating in after-school enrichment activities
Helps students stay focused, healthy, and ready to learn after the school day

Who Can Participate:

All children and teens 18 and under
Individuals of any age with mental or physical disabilities

Program Schedule:

Monday through Friday
Meals served for at least one hour after the last school bell

Program Highlights:

Balanced, nutritious meals every day after school
Available at all Dallas ISD campuses
Supports student health, growth, and academic success

Find Your Meal Site:

Check our MAP and Distribution Sites to see where meals are served.
Fuel your after-school fun and learning—join the ASM Program today!