

EMPLOYEE BULLYING

The Lyon County School District is committed to a safe and respectful learning and work environment free from bullying. The District prohibits a member of the Board of Trustees, any employee of the District, including, without limitation, an administrator, principal, teacher, or other staff member or volunteer from engaging in bullying. The District will promptly investigate allegations and will take disciplinary action when appropriate and in accordance with LCSD Board Policy GL - Staff Complaints.

If the alleged bullying could constitute sexual harassment under Title IX, the Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Sex Under Title IX policy AB and administrative regulations apply rather than the Employee Bullying policy GBBC and administrative regulations.¹ Because the school district must respond with specific steps whenever any employee has notice of sexual harassment under Title IX, all school employees are required to report possible incidents of sexual harassment directly to the District's Title IX Coordinator, as soon as practicable, but not later than a time during the same day on which the employee became aware of an incident of sexual harassment, including allegations of sexual harassment. Reports by school district employees must be made in person, by telephone, and/or by email to the school district's Title IX Coordinator as follows:

It is the intent of this policy that all employees and volunteers of the District are entitled to maintain their own beliefs and to disagree respectfully without resorting to violence or bullying. This policy does not advocate nor require the acceptance of differing beliefs in a manner that would inhibit the freedom of expression but does require that all persons with differing beliefs be free from bullying, harassment and abuse.

¹Sexual harassment is defined under the federal Title IX regulations as conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- a. A school employee conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the school district on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (i.e., quid pro quo); or
- b. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the school district's education program or activity; or
- c. Sexual assault as defined in the federal Clery Act, or dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking as defined in the federal Violence Against Women Act.

LYON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

This policy applies to all employees, including full- or part-time, casual/temporary/seasonal, elected officials, as well as volunteers and contract employees, and anyone else on the District's property.

4. Dealing with Allegations of Bullying

- Process (See LCSD Board Policy GL - Staff Complaints for the full process.)

LCSD employees are prohibited from engaging in bullying behavior in any form.

Employees or applicants who believe they are being bullied by another (e.g., employee, volunteer, vendor, contractor), as well as those who believe they have witnessed another employee, volunteer, customer, or member of the public being subjected to bullying behavior have an affirmative duty to bring the situation to the attention of any administrator or manager/supervisor, the District's designated EEO Officer (Executive Director of Human Resources), or to the alternate EEO Officer (Employee Relations Administrator).

Employees who believe the EEO Officer has engaged in alleged bullying should bring such concerns to the attention of the Superintendent or designee. The Superintendent will designate an objective person to conduct an investigation of such allegations.

Applicants who have concerns regarding violations of this policy are encouraged to contact the designated EEO Officer or the alternate.

- Administrator/Supervisor Responsibilities

Administrators or managers/supervisors must immediately report all allegations, complaints or observations of such prohibited conduct/behavior(s) to the EEO Officer.

The District will promptly investigate and appropriately address any allegation of retaliation in accordance with LCSD Board Policy GL.
