

The Girls Sextet sang the Prom theme, "Somewhere My Love."

"... Bruce Sveen's initials go to any Boy Scout."

"I don't give a rip!"

A Night Of Entertainment, Fun, And Memories

"Somewhere My Love" was beautifully portrayed in the Junior-Senior Prom on May 5, 1967. A beautiful mural depicting a scene from the show, Doctor Zhivago, was artistically drawn by Donna Stark. A delicious banquet, a formal dance and a "groovy" post prom added up to a night to be long remembered.

The Four Dons played as the couples danced into the night.

Banquet entertainment was provided by Lois Borg and Alaine Rau.

On behalf of the Senior Class, Carla Gader offered thanks for a wonderful evening.

Keen Competition Completed

To commend deserving students for work, the WFHS student council sponsored the annual awards day. The finale of things gone by and things to come reached its peak. For some, it was a day of reckoning, for others, a day of

For many WFHS students, the most enjoyable class of the day is band. The band members meet for concentrated music study and to prepare for the many activities in which they participate. Under the direction of Mr. Whaley, the band played for football and basketball games, presented a fall and spring concert and participated in the music festival.

There are also numerous small ensembles that practice long, hard hours to perform in the music festival, to accompany the choir and to provide background music for the Drama Club plays.

The School Is Alive With The Sound Of Music

The West Fargo High School Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Horstmann, sang its way through another great year. Out of the "highs" and "lows" of hard preparation emerged many well performed numbers.

During the Christmas holidays, the choir performed at a local television station. They also presented a Christmas and spring concert, sang at the music festivals and added something new--a "pop" concert.

Various small groups and soloists contributed to the success of the choir and the entire music department of WFHS.

Two small, but very active, groups at WFHS are the Girls Chorus and the Christmas Carolers. After Christmas, the Carolers had gone "mod", singing popular music. The Girls Chorus practices long, hard hours to perform at the music concerts.

Packer Staff Works For Better Paper Always Full Of Service

The Packer Staff, under the supervision of Mr. Edgerton and Mr. Christenson, has the sometimes difficult task of preparing the paper once a month. Much hard work and many headaches go into the writing of the stories and laying them out. Special credit should be given to the editors and their assistants for the extra time they contribute toward the success of the paper.

New And Mysterious

New to the Athletic Program at WFHS is Cross Country. Cross Country involves a team of at least five but not more than seven runners, covering distances of 1.8 miles to 2.2 miles. The races are held on grassy surfaces, with golf courses being used the most.

Coached by Mr. Mailloux, the team had a successful season and are looking forward to the '68 season with Dave Erickson as their captain.

Coach Mailloux

C. Farsdale, P. Maxwell, N. Lunde, S. Martin, S. Shoman.

School Spirit, Let's Hear It!

The pep, the pep; yes, that is just what the West Fargo cheerleaders have and they instill it in the fans. Whether braving a cold, Northland wind or stomping on the gym floor, the team is strengthened through the efforts of the cheerleaders and the Packer backers.

The cheerleaders' unfailing spirit, hours of hard practice and, often times, strained voices are just a part of what they give. They have proven themselves invaluable to the West Fargo teams.

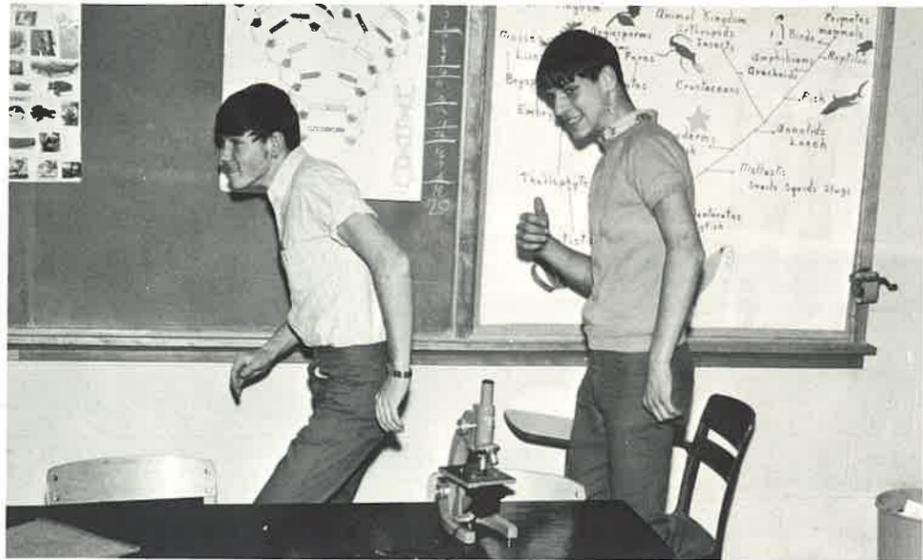

P. Jacobson, A. Rau, S. Willert.

K. Nelson, N. Maxwell, C. Rausch, P. Hoff, P. Robinson, A. Krajeck.

...Belonging To WFHS

"Hi To All WFHS Students"

It sure was fun coming to West Fargo. I would like to thank everyone who has made my staying here possible and successful.

I have had great experiences not only learning different customs and ways of living but also knowing so many nice people: my family, friends, and teachers who will remain in my heart. Because of the great differences I have found here, my year has been much more valuable. This is the cause why I loved to come.

This year has passed so fast, that I can hardly think of June when I will have to say "good-bye" to all my friends.

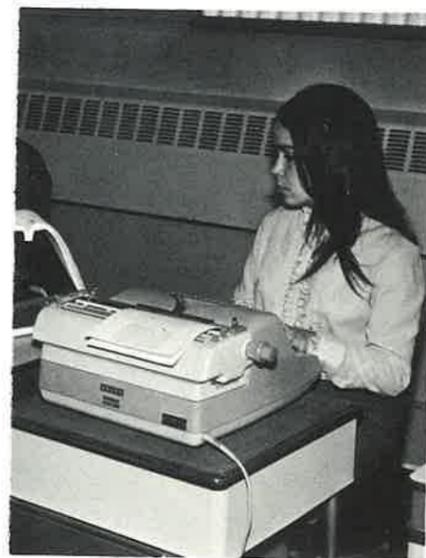

This year, '67-68, will stay in my mind forever. I could never forget it, never... I want you to remember that you gave me the greatest opportunity I could ever reached in my whole life.

SAUDADES and all my love!

Sola
