

“this business of life...”

Mr. Magentberg
1973-1974

I wish I knew what it will take to become what I want to be.

I wish I knew
how far I have to go,
how much I have to know
to become myself.

Together
we teach and learn the meaning
of life,
the meaning
of oneself.

I will be what you make me,
you my friends, the people I know.
You make me what I am.

Where's 218?
Where's 218?
There's no 218!!
Anyone else need a schedule?
Yeah, it's a boys' locker room
I'm supposed to go to!
Yes, but just go there today.
But it's all boys down there!
What periods do you have open?
Oh good- we have it together.
The bells aren't working!
What a hassle!

Band

it's got its advantages!

Band uniforms come in 2 sizes - too big and too small. Marching thru the shrubbery - Robin forgot to blow the whistle. Quit swiping my valve oil. We are now going to try to play this song - for the 56th time. Let's skip sectionals, small groups are so embarrassing - I can't play this stuff. My horn keeps falling apart! Are you sure it's your horn? I dropped my music in the middle of the parade! Halftime show at Homecoming - remember formations? Where do I go now? Get out 10 minutes early for pep rallies, free admission to games - has its advantages.

student body pres. elections

Scott Bjornson

Budd Warren

Jeff Watne

Student body president elections were a bit different this year. We had just 3 candidates, but competent ones. Their speeches were given in mid-air from the broadcaster's stand. All this took place outside on the football field with a "sit-in" for the spectators. This was student body president elections, 1973!!!

"With President Scott Presiding, It Begins..."

With President Scott Bjornson presiding, it begins: OK, can we have roll call? . . . . . Speak up, I can't hear you. . . Rhonda Brogson, Borgreson, Borgre - son of, forget it! You over there! . . I'm here, it only has three syllables, Bor-ger-son. . . Like I said - you over there! . . The food is bad. . . I'm not hard to satisfy. . . I think it's fine. . . Those girls smoking in the bathroom - there must be something done. . Bring air freshener with you. . Who's in charge of the suggestion box? . Waldo. . But he's not here. . Someone run up to the office and get the spare key to the box. . You can't. Why? He's got both keys. . We'll now have a committee report concerning the globe for the light post outside. . Joe or Brad, what did you find out? . Ah well. . . . .

As Curt Colby, president of Deca Club, calls the meeting to order, the members rack their brains over for some new money making ideas. A bake sale! . . . Yea, in the commons! . . . the tootsie rolls are selling good. . . . we have the concessions at the wrestling matches. We need four volunteers. Let's have a kegger! . . . Yea, Cookie will chaperone it . . . we need $$$$ but the administration wouldn't think twice if I were to chaperone. . . . Pepsi Pizza, Pepsi Pizza, Pepsi Pissa-whoops, how do ya spell it? . . . how many more do I have to write out? . . . Oh, about a million more. . . . we want to win that Pepsi Pizza Party, don't we? Yea. . . . OK . . . . Let's get our            together and write on those cards.

HOW would we have ever met our deadlines without all those understanding teachers?
 HOW would we have gotten everybody photographed without interrupting the hard working secretaries' coffee breaks?
 HOW would we have gotten enough pictures without that dependable ROGER FISCHER?
 HOW would we have gotten enough copy without our staff?
 HOW would we have ever understood making the yearbook without MUD WATERS, the American Yearbook representative?
 HOW could we have gotten pictures on time without Scherlings?
 HOW did Mr. Galbreath's patience endure through another two crazy editors?
 HOW could the yearbook deadlines be made without long nights of insanity on the editors' part?
 HOW DID WE DO IT?
 Well, good luck Pam and Becky!
 Signed, The Two Crazy Editors.

Camera Club

Where's the 35 mm. camera? Bill, would you leave those GIRLS alone in that dark room? Wow, the coronation pictures were great! Mr. Mutzenberger-get those subscriptions sold by Thanksgiving. Loneliness is selling subscriptions on a cold November night. There's too much light in the dark room! How old are these chemicals anyway? Happiness is eating a sack lunch on the bank of a beautiful river with nature all around you. You can capture that beauty with a camera.

Drama & Debate Club

A melodrama style play, "Deadwood Dick", was chosen for 1973. It was a three act situation, complete with everything from a devilish, fiendish villain to a battle-axe intemperance leader. The play was a comic way of dramatizing the old standby moral, "Crime doesn't pay." Mrs. Myrold was director and supervisor of the production.

National Honor Society has had a
 'lack of interest' type year. It seems that every member has gotten himself involved in so many activities that Honor Society has suffered from it. The annual egg power drive was fairly successful-nine people did a lot of knocking. Delegates attended the convention in Dickinson but only found out the Honor Society's apathy is statewide.
 There is interest in joining NHS but it seems that once initiated the students don't want to do anything for the club.

 in west fargo...
 both hard and wonderful...

My stay in West Fargo is a hard and wonderful experience. If you are in Africa, Europe, or any place in the world you have sad times, but you have to expect them. I felt homesick in my first days, this was the hard part of my experience.

I will never forget my first time, when I felt snow. It was exciting.

This experience gives me many benefits and it helps me in different aspects. I have learned a lot and I have discovered wonderful things.

Now I can say, I am lucky to be in West Fargo. I can't imagine another better place in the United States. Thank you West Fargo. I will always remember with love my days here.

today is a good day to smile and so share my joy with you.
today is a good day to work
and so start building tomorrow.
today is a good day to live and share my life with you.

Led by High School All-American candidate Tim Scully and most valuable player, Ron Van Dyke, the "Pack" this year set many defensive records for W. F. H. S. Although the over-all record doesn't reflect it, there were many outstanding performances turned in by the Packers. The players voted Capt. Curt Jones as the Outstanding Back, Jim McLeod as the Rookie of the Year, Jeff Watne as the Hardest Working and Scully and Van Dyke for Outstanding Lineman and MVP respectively. The soph. team with a 4-3 record this year will provide a strong nucleus for the varsity next fall.

WEST FARGO HIGH SCHOOL

The West Fargo "Packers" finished their regular season with a record of 7 wins and 13 losses. Among the highlights of the season were the 54-53 win over No. 1 ranked Devils Lake and the 60-52 victory over Fargo Shanley - the first time in ten years.

An outstanding individual achievement was forward Tony Reeves going over the 1,000 point mark - a school record.

A J.V. record of 11-9, with a predominantly sophomore squad, a sophomore record of 5-13, and a freshman team of 16-4 insure future trouble for opponents of the Green and White.

TO DO WITHOUT

We have very little yet we have much
 Few of our futures hold grand experience yet we have much to look forward to
 We have done without great luxuries all of our lives, yet we are rich beyond measure
 We have all we need for life, love, happiness and best of all, we have tomorrow.

memories
by cindy fleming

When you think about it, school is more than just learning about adjectives, and adverbs or some king who conquered another king hundreds of years ago.

Just take a moment to remember all the good times. It's hard to believe that even the realities of trying to get through just one more hour, one more day will only be memories someday. All the times we have spent sharing our lives with our friends will be over; laughing together over some stupid, meaningless thing and crying together over the things that meant too much. But it's not really the end, there is still so much more we have to learn.

"The end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time."

"ya gotta wanna"
by
mr. paul tefft

After pondering exactly what I was going to say for this page, a student reminded me of something I had been telling him all during football season, "ya gotta wanna" to be #1 at anything.

You ask, what does "ya gotta wanna" mean? It sounds like the language of someone who hasn't taken his English grammar seriously or at best needs elocution lessons. Those three words have more meaning when you apply them to your classroom work, to your performance on the athletic field, and most importantly, to your goals in life.

We all, teachers, administrators, coaches, and students, want to be successful, but the degree to which we succeed is often times neglected because we didn't WANT badly enough. We didn't have the discipline, the pride, nor were we willing to make the sacrifices necessary to carry out our wants to the ends where we would be successful

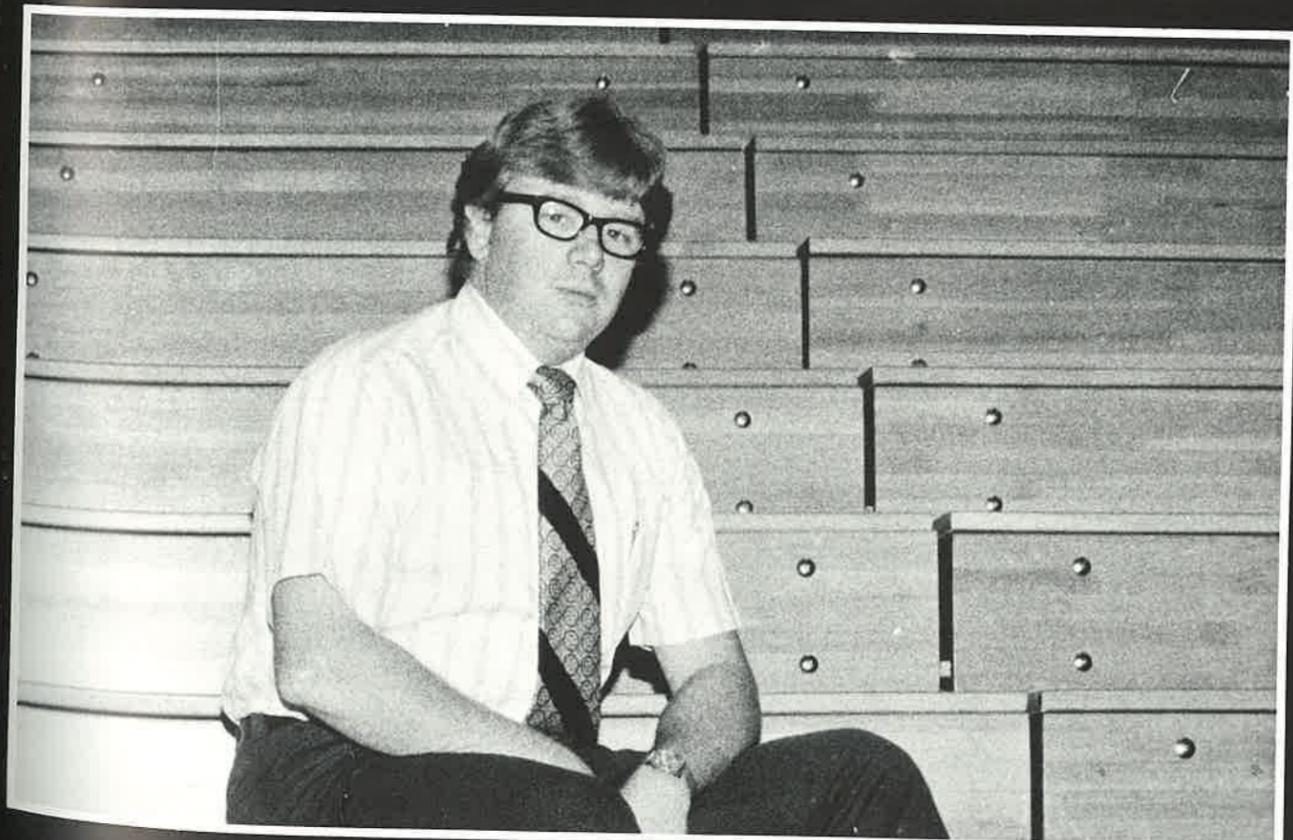

Today in our society it is very easy to find the path of least resistance. Why hassle, why go to all that trouble, nobody cares, so why should I break my back? This is a question that is never asked, but is always being answered.

Why should you care?

I can't answer that question for you. But this I do know. The people who are on this faculty care about you and what the future holds for you. That's why some of them break their backs trying to inform you of their experiences, successes, and yes, even failures. They are only human with human feelings and accomplishments. Be kind to them as they try to be kind to you.

Don't ever be satisfied with mediocrity. Do the best that you can no matter what the task. Want to be the best! Need to have the fulfillment of giving the task that you attempt your best shot. To fail after trying, after giving all you possibly can whether by going that extra lap or by putting in that extra hour of studying or by pushing yourself to the limits, isn't really failing. That's success, because you know that you've tried your hardest. What more could anyone ask?

At the risk of sounding like I'm preaching which I really don't want to do, and the chance that the words I choose are out-dated, phony, or whatever, remember this: we have the opportunity to change the world in these halls and classrooms. Let's for God's sake and the world's, not let that chance pass us by.

Prom

the fourth of may . . .

WHERE DO WE BEGIN to explain an annual tradition? A few juniors worked hard, with scattered bad feelings and a general student feeling of apathy and created another memorable night. Girls and boys alike shed blue jeans and donned formal wear. Some boys complained about the high price of one evening . . . some people are asking is prom outdated?

Homecoming was the most exciting time I have had in four years at West Fargo High. I was so excited at first being a candidate. Then that final night came and we had to get ready for that nights activities. I couldn't imagine what the outcome would be and was on edge all day. While I was trying to keep my cool up in front of all those people, there were so many thoughts rushing through my mind that I couldn't keep them straight. I don't remember my thoughts just as the crown was being placed on my head but I am sure they were wonderful. Then the tears come, and before I knew it was over. Pictures had to be taken and then home to a not so restful nights sleep. It is a real privilege being queen of West Fargo High School.

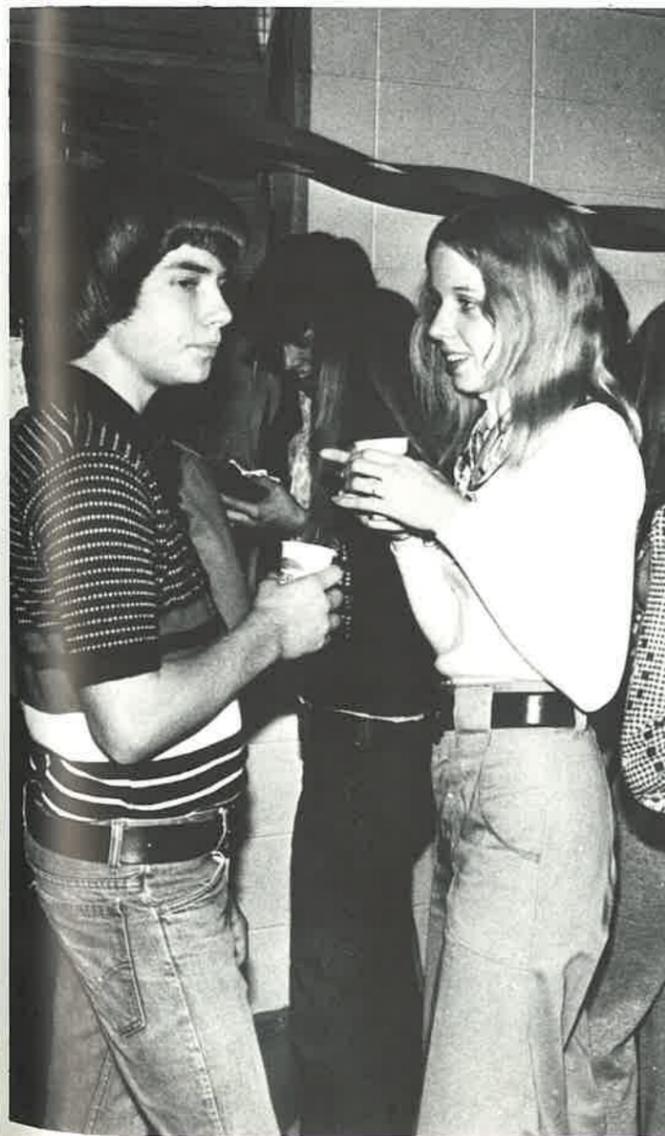

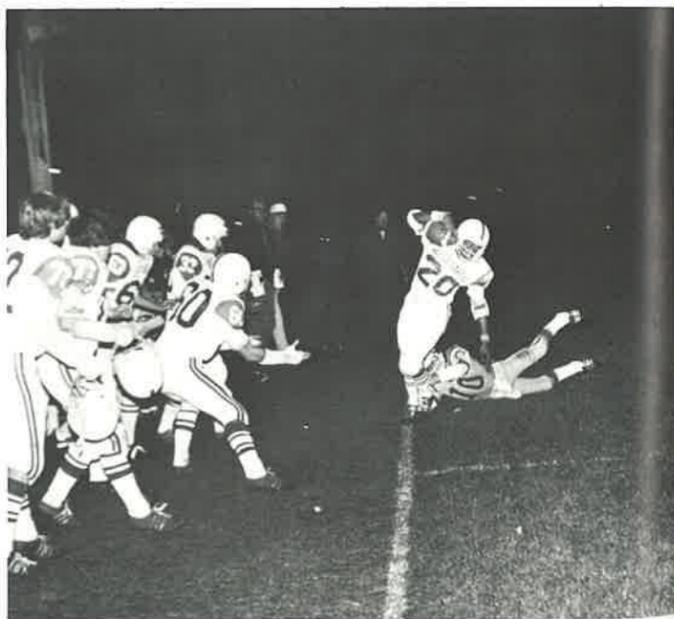

Thank-You!

A cold October night...Packer pride was at a peak...players and crowd totally ecstatic Happy faces in the crowd...Mud didn't stop cheerleading! A picture of total enthusiasm. A surge of excitement... WE WON!!!

CHRISTMAS

CHRISTMAS

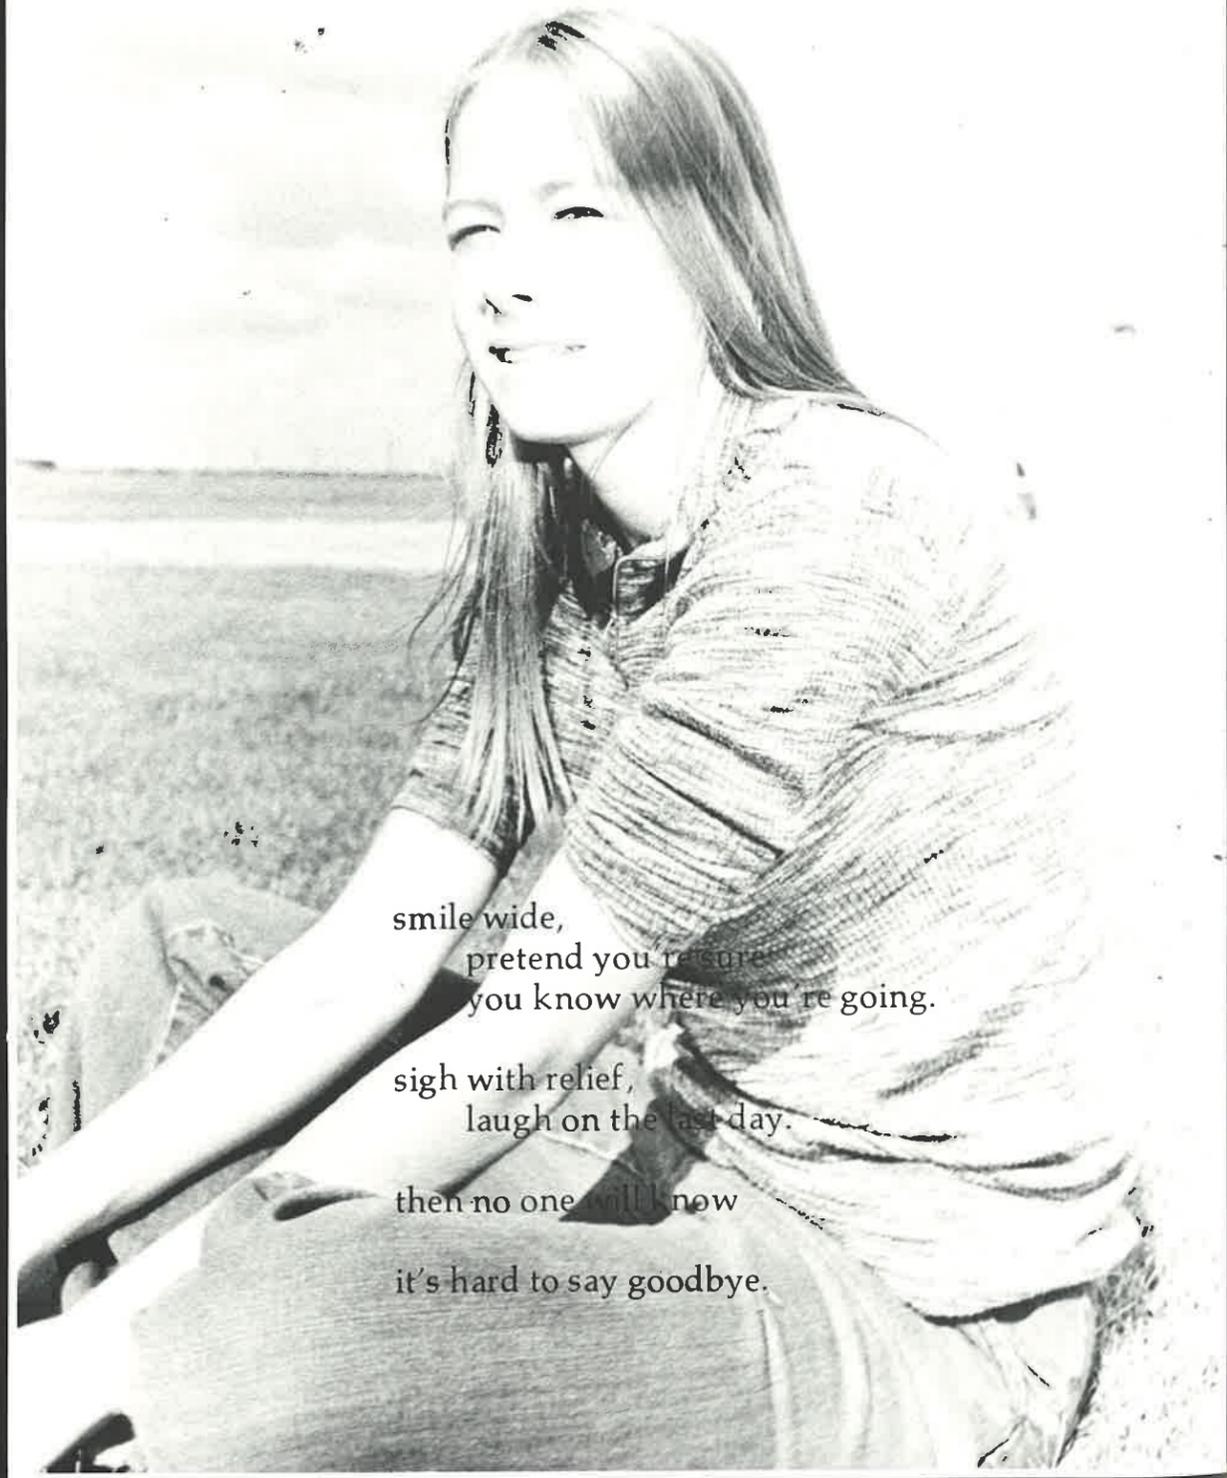

The annual Christmas Assembly had something new this year, more than one thing. It started off with Santa and Mrs. Claus arriving first with Santa reading his unending list. Later Frosty stopped in for a few minutes and tried not to melt! Also, the little Christmas tree came in to be decorated. And, something for all - apples for the faculty, candy for the kids, and VACATION for all!

AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

To Depart

smile wide,
pretend you're sure you know where you're going.

sigh with relief,
laugh on the last day.

then no one will know
it's hard to say goodbye.

This Business of Life...

WEST FARGO HIGH SCHOOL

I leave the security of people I have known since childhood and move out into a world I have not seen in its reality. I remove the blinders from my eyes and take those first faltering steps as an adult. I can feel the pain and joy of those behind me as they long to reach out and hold me up but their love restrains them. This I must learn alone, so I face my world and move slowly ahead into the future.

We're seniors, this is the last page of the book we edited, and we're a bit sentimental so please bear with us as we look back on our final year at WFHS.

School is a "drag" for everybody, sometimes. Let's try and forget the smoke-filled bathrooms, crowded halls, harrassing teachers, complaining students, gum in the waterfountain; our year has been more than that.

The new school addition evolved after much anticipation, frustration, and hard work. Our music department now has outstanding facilities. Everyone is very proud of our new gymnasium with Tartan surfacing. Crowded conditions were relieved by the addition of four new classrooms.

Our "Packer Spirit" has grown with the help of new wrestling and basketball coaches.

We would especially like to thank Mr. Ward Galbreath. He has hung in there through many editors and deadlines. We didn't know how much we needed him until he wasn't there.

We seniors will leave, but our memories of West Fargo High will still linger.

Love,

Beth and Barb
