

Athlete Code of Conduct

Athletics is an integral part of the school's total educational program. All school activities, curricular and extra-curricular, in the classroom and on the playing field, must be congruent with the school's goals and objective established for the intellectual, physical, social and moral development of its students. .

As an athlete, I understand that this is my responsibility to do the following:

- I will treat all athletes, coaches, and officials with respect before, during and after all contests.
- I will accept the decisions of officials without arguing. I will let the coach handle disputes.
- I will cheer for my teammates, and I will keep my comments positive.
- I will not use profanity or vulgarity or make racist or sexist comments.
- I will set a good example of behavior and show a good work ethic for teammates.
- I will attend all practices and team meetings unless excused by my coach.
- I will show respect for all facilities and other property (including locker rooms and school vehicles) used during practices, tournaments, and activities.
- I will recognize and show appreciation for good plays from my opponent.
- I will work hard to protect my school, team and league's reputation.
- I will not allow others' negative sportsmanship to become an excuse to do the same.
- I will maintain a passing grade in each of my classes.
- I will attend all classes.
- I will attend all practices.

Failure to follow this code of conduct could result in removal from the team.
