

Integrated Social Studies: Pick one of the following choices down below for each NTI day.

- Create an infographic/poster about one of the first ten amendments.
- Find a news article about rights or justice. Summarize the article in 5 sentences and explain which amendment it connects to.
- Create your own amendment for the US Constitution. Write an explanation for why you created that specific amendment.
- Create a visual project comparing a past event to something happening today. Include 3 similarities or differences.
- Create a short "interview" between you and someone from the past. Imagine how they would answer your questions. Must be 5 questions.
- Choose a current world issue and draw a map of where the issue occurs most.
- Research how one economic issue affects your community. Summarize what you learn and suggest one solution.
- Collect 3 news articles from this week. Predict how a historian might interpret these events in 50 years.
- Watch a historical film and write a brief summary of the movie.
- Explain the main job of one branch of government. Give two examples of how it impacts citizens.
- Research one issue people vote on locally. Explain both sides and state your opinion.
- Interview two people about what they think is the most important civic responsibility. Summarize your findings.
- Explain one way you can be an active citizen now, even before you can vote.
- Design a short guide explaining how to register and vote in your community.
- Sketch or describe a mural that celebrates active citizenship.
- Design a poster for a historical or modern social movement.
- Write a newspaper headline that captures a turning point in a movement.