

US HIS: Pick one of the following choices down below for each NTI day.

- Write a letter from the perspective of someone living in the 1920s.
- Choose a major event and explain why it was a turning point for the nation.
- Choose one industrial leader or inventor from the late 1800s-early 1900s and explain their impact on society.
- Pick one decade (1920s, 1930s, 1950s, 1960s, etc.). Create a short summary of its major social and political changes.
- Select one event where the US played a major global role (WWII, Cold War, Vietnam, War on Terror.) Explain its global impact.
- Write a journal entry from the perspective of an immigrant arriving in America around 1900. What opportunities and hardships do you face?
- Pick a reformer or movement. Explain the problem they fought to fix and their lasting impact.
- Choose one leader or event from the Civil Rights era and describe how it brought change.
- Pick a modern issue. Explain how it connects to a past event in history.
- Draw a propaganda poster from WWII
- Create an infographic/poster about a movement that occurred during the 1920s.
- Listen to music from the 1930s. Write a summary of the main themes you were exposed to when you listened to the music.
- Design a short poster representing the cultural changes of the 1920s.
- Write a short article about the rise of jazz and its impact on American society.
- Create a 3-bullet summary of how movies influenced culture in the 1920s.
- Explain the causes and effects of Prohibition.