

Journalism

• Snow art: Paint the snow, make snow angels, or create a snow maze. • Send a picture of what you are doing on parent square.	Work on your page for the yearbook. The code is 32150. I'll be watching to see who gets on. Upload some fun pictures.	Work on making sure the ads are spelled correctly. Work on making sure the names of the students are spelled correctly.	Journal or write a letter to a friend, family member, or teacher.
Scavenger hunts: Hide symbols or images in the yearbook and challenge students to find them. I didn't think of this....but it sounds fun....hide the stickers? Come up with a cute picture aka sticker?	Send some pictures to my email of you working/sleeping/napping/ Building a snowman/drinking hot cocoa/making breakfast/cleaning your room/babysitting younger siblings/or just smiling (no tongues please!) LOL Enjoy the day	Bake or make treats like mug cakes or snow ice cream.	Work on pages of the yearbook. See the parent square for a picture of the ladder. Keep working.
Brainstorm a fun activity for us to do at the end of the year Field Trip to? Why? Name 5 reasons we need to go.	Journal or write a letter to a friend, family member, or teacher.	Write out a criteria letter for the next years YEARBOOK staff. What do they need to know?	Work on pages of the yearbook. See the parent square for a picture of the ladder. Keep working

Ms. Tracy