

Financial Literacy: Pick one of the following choices down below for each NTI day.

- Create a weekly budget.
- Create a monthly budget.
- Research colleges and compare tuition and living expenses. Compare 2-3 and write down a list of information found.
- Research scholarships. In 2 sentences, tell me what kind of scholarships you believe you qualify for.
- Look at career interests and write down a list of careers you plan to explore.
- Make a list of things you can cut out today to reduce your overall expenses.
- Create a 5 year plan for your future.
- Create a 10 year plan for your future.
- Research different majors and compare and contrast these. different majors on a piece of paper.
- Watch a movie that deals with money in some capacity. Write a summary of the movie.
- Write a letter to yourself about where you are at in your life and where you expect to be at in 10 years.
- Create an infographic about why learning about finance and saving is important.
- Design a poster showing “needs vs. wants.”
- Make a pie chart of typical teen expenses.
- Create a poster showing the benefits of saving early.
- Design a poster warning about credit card debt.
- Create a sample paycheck and label deductions.
- Create a mock check register showing deposits and withdrawals.