Forsyth County Schools Recognized Among Georgia's 2024–25 Literacy and Math Leader Schools

(FORSYTH COUNTY, GA) — The Georgia Department of Education has named multiple Forsyth County schools among its 2024–2025 Literacy Leader and Math Leader honorees, recognizing exceptional achievement and growth in reading and mathematics.

The Literacy Leader and Math Leader awards celebrate schools across Georgia that demonstrate extraordinary student progress and proficiency on annual end-of-grade and end-of-course assessments. Recognitions are given for overall achievement, growth, or both.

Forsyth County Schools earned numerous recognitions across elementary, middle, and high school levels, reflecting the district's commitment to strong foundational learning in reading and math.

Superintendent Dr. Mitch Young expressed his pride in the recognition, stating, "Strong literacy and math skills are the foundation for lifelong success. Our teachers and staff work tirelessly to ensure their students improve each year, and this honor recognizes that commitment to continued growth and achievement."

The Georgia Department of Education identified 406 Literacy Leader schools and 479 Math Leader schools statewide based on 2024–2025 Georgia Milestones results. Literacy recognitions were based on reading status and Lexile growth, while math recognitions were based on proficiency levels on mathematics assessments.
