Innovation & Entrepreneurship Scholarship 2027

ENTRY TO YEARS 5 TO 11 IN 2027

As part of our commitment to fostering future-enabled, creative-thinking entrepreneurs who see problems as opportunities and who model a 'start-up' mindset, All Saints' College strives to be a leader in student-centric learning and in enterprise and innovation.

The Innovation and Entrepreneurship Scholarship is eligible for new students not currently attending All Saints' College entering Years 5 to 11 in 2027. The value is 50% of the College's academic tuition fee.

This scholarship is a unique opportunity for a young person with a demonstrated flair for, and experience in, innovation, invention, 'start-up' thinking and entrepreneurship to join our community.

The College has a number of initiatives designed to foster an entrepreneurial mindset. These include, but are not limited to: InnovatED, a course facilitated by a multi-disciplinary team of teachers, in which students engage in problem-finding, collaboration, and design thinking to co-design a curriculum that reflects their passions, interests, and concerns; Runway, our pop-up shop dedicated to showcasing the goods and services of enterprising young people; and HotHouse Company, a unique and experimental arts program that provides opportunities in an 'incubation environment' extending beyond the traditional curriculum.

Frequently Asked Questions

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

What types of scholarships does All Saints' College offer?

The College offers a range of scholarships, including Academic Scholarships, Performing Arts Scholarships (Drama and Dance), Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Heritage Scholarship, Innovation & Entrepreneurship, Music Scholarships, and an Old Saints' Scholarship. Each has its own eligibility criteria, application process, and benefits.

Who can apply for scholarships? Are they open to current students as well as new students?

All scholarships are open to both current All Saints' College students and students not yet enrolled at the College, except the Innovation & Entrepreneurship Scholarship – this is only applicable for external students who are not currently enrolled.

What costs are covered by a scholarship?

All scholarships generally cover 50% of the tuition fees. The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Scholarship may cover up to 100% of tuition fees (depending on financial circumstances), and the Music Scholarship also covers 100% of the 30-minute music lesson tuition fees. Other charges including Year Level, subject charges, textbooks, uniforms, ICT charges, camp costs and incidentals, are usually excluded from the scholarship.

How long does a scholarship last?

Scholarships are awarded for the duration of a student's enrolment at the College, provided the conditions of the scholarship continue to be met.

Who should I contact if I have any further questions about the scholarship programs?

Please contact our Admissions Department on scholarships@allsaints.wa.edu.au or 9313 9342.

ELIGIBILITY & APPLICATIONS

How do I know if my child is eligible to apply?

Each scholarship has specific entry requirements. For further details, read the information in this booklet for each category.

Can students apply for more than one scholarship category?

Yes, students may apply for more than one scholarship if they meet the eligibility criteria for each. Separate applications are required, and there are separate fees associated with each application. Please note that a student can only be awarded one scholarship.

Do students need to be Australian citizens or permanent residents to apply?

Students applying for scholarships must provide proof of citizenship or residency. A copy of the birth certificate (or equivalent documentation) is required with all applications.

What supporting documents are required for a scholarship application?

Supporting documentation varies slightly, but generally includes the student's most recent academic report, most recent NAPLAN results and copy of the student's birth certificate. Some scholarships also require proof of participation in the various field, endorsement letters from community leaders or the current Principal. Check each program for required documentation.

Is there an application fee, and is it refundable?

All scholarships have associated application fees. Academic ($150), Dance, Drama, Music and Innovation ($100), Old Saints ($50) and no fee for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Scholarship. All application fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Frequently Asked Questions

EXAMINATIONS & AUDITIONS

What is involved in the Academic scholarship examination?

All students applying for Academic Scholarships must sit the scholarship examination, which assesses a range of academic skills. The exam is conducted on a set date at the College and typically runs over three hours, with a 15-minute morning tea break in between. The examination is run by Academic Assessment Services (AAS).

Are past exam papers or practice materials available?

Sample papers are not provided, however AAS do have online practice tests which can be accessed here: Online Practice Tests | AAS

What is the audition process for Music, Dance and Drama Scholarships?

Students applying for Music, Dance and Drama Scholarships are invited to audition in their chosen discipline. Details of the audition process will be provided once applications close. Learn more about the audition processes on the program pages in this booklet.

When and where are the examinations/auditions held?

Examinations and auditions are held on campus at All Saints' College.

- Academic Scholarship exam: Saturday 2 May 2026
- Dance/Drama Scholarship audition: Saturday 23 May 2026
- Music Scholarship audition: Saturday 21 February 2026

What happens if my child is unable to attend the scheduled exam or audition date?

Attendance at the scheduled exam/audition is a requirement. Unfortunately, alternative dates are not scheduled; however, in the event of extenuating circumstances, online submission/participation may be allowed. This will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

SELECTION & OUTCOMES

How are scholarship recipients selected?

Selection is based on the criteria of each scholarship. Academic results, audition performance, and supporting documentation are all considered, along with interviews where required. The number of scholarship recipients varies each year, and is dependent upon a number of factors.

Will applicants be interviewed as part of the process?

Yes. Shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend an interview as part of the selection process.

When will families be notified of the outcome?

Families will be notified after the selection process is complete. Notification timelines vary by scholarship type, however, all families will be notified via email of the outcome (whether successful or unsuccessful), typically by the end of Term 2 2026 (July).

Will I receive my child's individual results from the Academic Scholarship Examination?

No. Students sitting the Scholarship Examination do not receive individual performance reports. Marks are confidential and cannot be disclosed under any circumstances.

How many scholarships are awarded each year?

The All Saints' College Scholarship Program is very competitive, with a limited number of scholarships offered each year for each category. The number may vary depending on the applicant pool and available places, which change from year to year.

If my child is unsuccessful, can they reapply in future years?

Yes. Students are welcome to reapply in later scholarship rounds if eligible.

Frequently Asked Questions

CONDITIONS & COMMITMENTS

What are the expectations of scholarship holders?

Recipients are expected to maintain sound academic performance and remain committed to the relevant program (e.g. Music, Dance, Drama, Innovation or Academic excellence), and contribute positively to College life.

What happens if a student's academic performance declines?

Scholarships are conditional on continued commitment and satisfactory progress. If performance or engagement falls short, the College reserves the right to review or withdraw the scholarship.

What happens if I accept a scholarship offer but later withdraw my child from All Saints' College?

If an enrolment is cancelled after the conclusion of Term 3 in the year prior to commencement, but before the student's confirmed start year, a penalty equivalent to one quarter of the annual tuition fee will be payable within two weeks of giving notice of withdrawal.
