Help available during holidays

Food, health and shelter aren't guaranteed for all families this holiday season. Between the government shutdown and rising grocery prices, many are facing challenges. If you need help, please ask. If you can help, please give. Here are some resources:

- ◆ Basic needs
- ◆ Legal assistance
- ◆ Mental health
- ◆ Substance abuse

Students may also reach out to their counselors for further assistance.

'Tis the season to sparkle

Welcome the holidays at the Parade of Lights, at 6 p.m. Nov. 23 in the heart of Fort Worth. Read more

Family help needed for dual-credit grades

More than half of TABS' 12th-graders are failing one or more dual-credit classes. These classes are often needed for graduation from both TABS and TCC. That's a problem!

Help your student excel by conducting grade checks at home. Have your student show you current grades in Focus and TCC's Canvas ever week.

In addition, make note of these dates:

- ◆ Dec. 4: TCC drop date
- ◆ Dec. 17: Last day of the fall semester for TCC and TABS

Gobble up a yearbook discount

Get $5 off your yearbook with the code "GOBBLE" Nov. 17-20. The price will jump in January, so order yours today! Contact: Dr. Reeder

HEROES

Chief Joseph

Also known by his native name, Hinmatoowyalah-tq'itwas, Chief Joseph was a leader of a band of the Nez Perce people. He was born in 1840 and assumed leadership in 1871. War broke out between the Nez Perce and the United States soon thereafter. To prevent further bloodshed, Chief Joseph tried to move his people to Canada, but they fell short. Chief Joseph surrendered, and his people were forced to settle in Oklahoma. He died in 1904 and is remembered for his efforts to broker peace and protect his people. Read more
