Charleston County School District
Office of Communications
75 Calhoun St.,
Charleston, SC 29401
(843) 937-6300

Media Release

CCSD District Principals Recognized for Gains on State Report Card

Johns Island, SC (November 11, 2025) – The Charleston County School District Board of Trustees and Superintendent Anita Huggins recognized dozens of principals from across the district for their phenomenal work, which led to increased achievement and growth in their schools on the 2025 School Report Card.

"These individuals have led with vision, diligence, and strategy to take their schools to the next level," Huggins explained. "Without exception, leaders who are focused on kids, we simply could not do the work."

Schools represented included neighborhood schools, partnership schools, and charter schools.

Read more here.

For more information, contact the Office of Communications at (843) 937-6303.

###

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 50,000 students in 88 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD offers a diverse portfolio of educational options and specialized programs delivered to the students of CCSD through neighborhood, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), Montessori, and charter schools and programs. Rich educational opportunities for students include programs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; military; dual credit; and many more.