The suggested lessons and activities from the SWFL Holocaust Museum paired with Social Studies instructional materials in 10th and 11th grades provide thorough instruction on the Holocaust, the consequences of the events between1933-1945, and how prejudice, racism, and stereotyping create an atmosphere for unjustified negative behaviors. The "5-8-10 Project" connects the Museum to CCPS students in 5th, 8th, and 10th grades with age-appropriate and curriculum-connected programs. "Museum Trip & Talk" brings the 8th-grade students to the Holocaust Museum for docent-led tours and an activity based on Resistance and Rescue. A Survivor/Liberator presents at the school sites for a primary source account. "Confronting Genocide" provides a comparative discussion of genocide for 10th-grade students using the Holocaust as the foundation. More recent genocides are examined to determine common themes and processes; and what to do about preventing it. This is paired with the 10th grade World History course.
