

Senate Bill 63 requires that Local Educational Agencies (LEA) make standardized tests available to students who are in a home study program within their attendance area. A home study student is one in a home study program that meets the requirements of GA Code O.C.G.A. §20-2-690 (2024).

Those wishing to take a standardized test at Stephens County High School must send an email to the appropriate contact person for the corresponding test by the deadline given (see chart below). The email will serve as a notification of the home study student's intent to take the applicable assessment, and it must include the following information:

- (a) Student's first and last name
- (b) Parent/guardian first and last name
- (c) Current address
- (d) Assessment to be taken (if AP, please include subject area)
- (e) Parent/guardian phone number.

After the information has been received, the contact person will provide further directions that are specific to the requested assessment
