SEAHAWK SPOTLIGHT Congratulations, Matt Evans!

After more than 30 years in education—including 15 years as a classroom teacher and 16 years in administration with the Sevier County School System in Tennessee— Matt Evans and his family made a major move from the Smoky Mountains to Florida's Forgotten Coast.

This school year, both he and his wife, Vanessa, joined the team at Franklin County School. Mrs. Evans is currently teaching 4th grade, and their two sons, Fred and MJ, are in 6th and 3rd grades, respectively. Throughout his career in education, Evans has been passionate about helping students and staff grow, set goals, and succeed. In his current role as FCS assistant principal, he says, he is especially grateful for the opportunity to support a wider range of people within the school community.

"My ultimate goal is to serve as many people as possible in a positive and encouraging way," he said. Evans expressed his appreciation for the warm welcome his family has received at Franklin County School. "It's been a fantastic start to a great year," he said. "We're truly thankful to be part of such a supportive and caring school community."

Let's all keep SOARing—Go Seahawks!
