

Fargo South Student Announcements

Thursday, November 13th, 2025

Announcements:

- The South High Library is hosting a Sugar Showdown from today to November 14! Stop by to check out our candy brackets and cast your vote each week for your favorite sweet treat. Come join the fun and help crown the ultimate candy champion!
- Students who are planning to attend the East Region volleyball tournament match at North today can pick up a free ticket voucher at the bookkeeper window or from Mr. Beaton in the main office courtesy of the Bruin Booster Club. There is a limit of 40 for the match. The match starts at 6:00 PM.
- Hello Art Club! We will be meeting today in room G27 from 3:40-5:00. We will be creating uplifting kindness cards to share with our school community. Hope to see you all there.
- Students who are planning to attend the State Girls Swimming and Diving Meet at the Hulbert Aquatics Center in West Fargo on Friday and/or Saturday can pick up a free ticket voucher at the bookkeeper window or from Mr. Beaton in the main office courtesy of the Bruin Booster Club. There is a limit of 40 for each day. Go Bruins!
- There will be a girls track and field team meeting on Thursday, November 20th at 3:45 in room C30. If you are in a winter sport there is no need to attend.
- History Club will be meeting today in Mr. Hackey's room, D18. Everyone is welcome to check it out
- Gymnastics Season Starts November 17th! If you are interested in participating, please fill out the form linked below. This opportunity is open to all students in grades 7–12.
<https://forms.gle/aRj7M6ZzpomcFLgVA>
- November is DECA month. The DECA Diamond is a symbol that represents the principles of the organization which include: academic preparation, community service, professional development and leadership. Today, DECA members who are wearing a DECA t shirt will pass out candy to those who can show them the best DECA Diamond.

Today's Activities:

6:00pm Volleyball: Varsity East Region Tournament vs Fargo North