

EAGLE NEWS

Anderson Island Elementary

November 14, 2025

Good afternoon Eagle Families,

We had another great week of growth here at school. Our students are working hard, and it's showing — we are really proud of them. I know the bug is going around, and we're seeing quite a few sick students. Please remember the importance of sleep, and remind our Eagles to wash their hands after using the restroom. We want to do everything we can to keep ourselves and each other healthy. And if your child isn't feeling well, it's okay to stay home — we don't want to spread germs to classmates. Being present and at school helps all of our Eagles stay Anchored in Excellence.

We have a fun week ahead as we approach Thanksgiving. Here's what we get to look forward to next week:

Tuesday: STEAM

Wednesday: BEES Library

Thursday: Lockdown Drill practice

Friday: Outdoor Classroom — let's all hope for dry weather!

We also have an exciting event coming up on November 26th — our Title I Event and Thanksgiving Feast. We'll celebrate some of our academic success from last year and this year, and families will learn more about Title I and how it supports students at Anderson Island Elementary.

There's a lot to look forward to this month. Until next week, I hope you all stay dry this weekend. Remember to get some rest, get some exercise, and don't forget to read.

See you all next week, Eagles.

Notes from the Classroom

Mrs. Cunningham

No school on Tuesday makes for a short and slightly confusing week, but we managed to make it through. Thank you to everyone who joined us for the Veterans Day Tea! It was wonderful to listen to the amazing conversations between students and Veterans. Here are a few takeaways from our interviews:

Question: What was the best part of being in the military?

Answer: Being able to travel and meet new people all over the world.

Question: What was your job in the military?

Answer: I was an electronic technician, it was a great job and I got that job because I learned so much math in high school. It's important to listen to your teacher.

Thank you, Veterans!

Winter Program-

This week, your student should have brought home a script titled "How the Grinch Stole Christmas." Please help your student practice their lines at home. If they do not have their name specifically assigned to a role, that means they are a "Who" and read the "Everybody" lines. The winter program will be on the evening of December 17th. Our program is based on the book and not the movie. To help you practice, I've included a link to the read aloud version:

More details to come as we get closer to the performance.

Have a great weekend!
