UNIVERSAL ACCESS

ADVANCING UNIVERSAL ACCESS FOR ALL LEARNERS

The Bright Futures Project continues to make powerful progress in advancing Universal Design for Learning (UDL), thanks to the collaboration and expertise of our dedicated support staff and partners. Together, we are building inclusive, equitable learning environments where every learner can thrive.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS:

- Collaborative Effort: Supported by specialists, counselors, psychologists, and TOSAs.
- Partnerships: Worked with Open Access and SIP to deliver districtwide training.
- Districtwide Impact: UDL professional learning launched across 13 school sites.
- Training Topics: UDL foundations, classroom culture, learner variability, and proactive strategies.
