Requested Action

School Board Recognition of 2025 Governor's Workforce Summit Honorees

Summary Explanation and Background

Cherokee County School District students' success through the Career Pathways program was highlighted at the 2025 Governor's Workforce Summit. The summit gathers educators, business and industry leaders, government officials, and community partners focused on skills-based workforce development and showcases successful initiatives.

The Etowah High School U.S. Air Force Junior ROTC program presented the colors at the special event held at the Georgia World Congress Center, and senior Cadet Col. Keaton Spellacy gave a speech to the audience of workforce development leaders.
