Dear Wyoming Primary Families,

What a wonderful morning we shared together at our Veterans Day gatherings! Despite the chilly weather, it was truly heartwarming to see so many families come out to honor the brave men and women who have served our country. Watching our students raise the American flag and sing patriotic songs with such pride was a beautiful reminder of the power of community, gratitude, and shared tradition. Thank you for being present, for modeling respect and appreciation, and for helping make the morning so meaningful for our students.

We also want to extend a big thank-you for the great turnout at our Book Fair this week! We are so grateful for your continued support and for encouraging your children to discover new books and fall in love with reading. Events like the Book Fair not only help build our school library and classroom collections, but also create excitement around reading that lasts long after the week is over. We truly appreciate your partnership in helping our students grow.

Additionally, we would love to invite all families to join us for the groundbreaking ceremony of the new Hilltop School building. We are excited to take this next step in creating a space that will serve students for generations to come. The same love, care, and spirit that shaped our old building will be poured into the new one as we design learning spaces that honor our traditions while preparing students for a bright future. We hope you will join us at the Hilltop site on Monday, November 24th at 4 p.m.

Warmly,

Jenn Earhart
WPS Principal
