

Board of Education Meeting Highlights — November 6, 2025

To increase Board and public communications, after each Board of Education meeting, we will send an email highlighting key discussions and actions. This message is being shared with parents, staff, and all who have requested district email communications.

Below is a summary of what was accomplished at the November 6, 2025 meeting:

I. Keeping Our Community Informed

The Board:

- Reminded families that school will be closed on Tuesday, November 11.
 - Encouraged parents to review the District Calendar, as many exciting events, concerts, and performances are scheduled in the coming month.

II. Presentations

Two presentations were delivered:

1. Superintendent's Update

Superintendent Kravitz shared insights from recent education conferences he attended on behalf of the District.

Presentation slides are available on the District website:

2. Student Performance Data Updates

As part of the District's increased focus on student performance data, Advanced Placement and NYS Assessment updates were presented by Assistant Superintendent Ivy Sherman (Curriculum & Instruction) and Curriculum Associates:

Dan Salzman (ELA), Helene Kriegstein (Mathematics), Jana Ostroff (Science & Technology), Eric Sundberg (Social Studies & Business), Ruth Breidenbach (Fine & Performing Arts), and Lionel Chan (World Languages).

Dr. Kravitz emphasized that this was only the "first night of bringing some of that data" to the public and that the District will continue "breaking down that information" throughout the year with additional presentations.

III. Access to Materials

All information—including the full agenda and schedules—is available on the District website
